Pupils know more for less

Antioch Grade School Dist. 34 Supt. Dr. Donald Skidmore told the board of education that an analysis of achievement tests done over a 10-year period clearly demonstrates that Dist. 34 has seen a constant and consistent growth in student achievement for the entire decade of the 1980s.

"This in itself would please anyone, but when you couple it with the fact that the school district is enrolling more and more children with learning and emotional problems affecting learning, the results begin to broach on the amazing," said Skidmore.

Skidmore also gave the board a county-wide report that shows a ratio of the educational costs per pupil.

According to the report, the average expenditure in the county per pupil was $4,408.

"Grade School Dist. 34 spent $3,141 to educate each pupil in the district last year, or 71 percent of the average cost," reported Skidmore.

Dist. 34's costs were sixth from the bottom in the list of 27 school districts in Lake County.

Dist. 34 at the present time has 1,735 students enrolled. This includes 59 with learning disabilities, seven with behavior problems and 22 SEDOL students.

Inclusive of the 29 students attending SEDOL classes outside of the district, the total enrollment is 1,742.

Skidmore admits to being off by 20 students, having predicted an enrollment of 1,722. His new projection sets the fall of 1990-91 enrollment at a figure that could range from 1,785 to 1,800, showing a possible gain upward of 50 new students.

He predicts growth of another 75 students the next school year.

Skidmore asked the building committee to look into future options regarding building programs so that the board would have these options by the fall of 1990 or at the latest, the spring of 1991.

The board approved Skidmore's request for a two-person addition to the junior high staff; the addition of two counselors, each at an estimated salary of $25,000 per year; and the filling of the position of assistant superintendent of instruction, left open for the last 10 years, at an estimated $55,000 per year.

2 thieves laugh last

An Antioch and a Wilmot man were released on $20,000 recognizance bonds Monday for allegedly stealing $1,795 worth of tools from a "friend" and committing criminal damage to property.

The two men, Fred McGinnis, 29, 4449 Savage Rd., Antioch, and James G. Miller, 49, P.O. Box 87, Wilmot, were arrested Monday morning in Lindenhurst after turning themselves in for the alleged crimes committed the previous Tuesday, Jan. 23.

According to a Lindenhurst Police report, the two men entered a newly constructed home at 697 Penn, Lindenhurst, by kicking in the garage access door, which was worth an estimated $200, with the intention of stealing the drywall tools owned by their friend, Nicholas J. Bloom of Waukegan.

Bloom, who was at lunch when the crimes were committed, had been working on a drywall job for the home's owner, Guy Lolmaugh of Modern Home Builders.

Bloom implicated the two men when he told Lindenhurst Ofc. Andy Jones that McGinnis was in the house with him the

Cops crack car thefts, arrest three teenagers

The Antioch Police, in cooperation with the Lindenhurst Police Dept., arrested three 16-year-old males at press time, filing charges with juvenile authorities concerning 13 thefts from cars in Antioch and 17 in Lindenhurst inside of the last two months.

All the burglaries occurred on weekends, between 10 p.m. and 2 a.m.

One teenager is from the Village of Antioch, another Antioch Twp., and the third from Lindenhurst.

According to Antioch Lt. Tom Fisher, while investigating the case, Officer Mike Culat and Fisher questioned one juvenile, who led them to the other two and $3,000 in stolen merchandise.

The recovered loot consists of portable telephones, radar detectors, flashlights, CB radios, etc.

The three also admitted to the 17 Lindenhurst burglaries, but Acting Police Chief Art Preder said the police had not yet finished with their interrogation and had not recovered the stolen Lindenhurst merchandise as of press time.

The three are also being charged with criminal damage to property, having allegedly sprayed area homes with words and satanic symbols.

Young ice fisherman in training

The time of year is right for ice fishing as it is becoming one of the most popular pastime activities in the Lakeland area during the winter season. Outdoorsmen of all kinds are taking advantage of the recent cold-front to partake in the challenging sport. Here, John Lanius teaches his grandson, Brian, 4, how to become an expert ice fisherman with the help of Brian's father, Mike Lanius, at right. Looks like the training is coming along pretty well, as Brian has bagged a big one.—Photo by Joe Shuman

Terrorists don't have bomb threat monopoly

by GLORIA DAVIS
Lakeland Newspapers

Terrorists from the Far East don't have a monopoly on bomb threats.

Besides airports and some commercial enterprises, the American high school is often on the receiving end of phoned in bomb threats that in most cases turn out to be not much more than a teenage prank.

Prank, that is, unless the perpetrator is caught. Teens are remanded to the juvenile authorities while an adult could be charged in some cases with a felony and in others with a serious misdemeanor.

According to Antioch High School Principal Art Blecke, ACHS averages from five to 10 phoned in threats per year. A few years ago a student was apprehended in the school with a working bomb strapped to his leg. The bomb was for sale. The student was charged and suspended.

Although North Chicago Principal Gordon Hill, who has held that office for over five years, claims that no bomb threats have come into the school in that time, a few days after we talked to him the school received an early morning bomb threat.

The caller said that the bomb was set to go off at 1 p.m. Authorities were called, the school was searched, nothing was found and school was called off for the rest of the day.

Now according to most school representatives that have attended the bomb scare seminars for high schools, that was probably a textbook threat and the caller got just what he or she wanted, a day off of school.

Reports are that most calls are received between 9 and 10 a.m. in the morning usually from within the school or close by so the caller can see what happens.

Nice days mean a bigger chance for the call from a voice that is usually that of a young male, but in the last few years teenage girls have been getting into the act.

Time off of school or revenge against the school or teachers is usually the reason for such a call.

Local authorities (police, rescue squad and fire department) are notified and a code is used to notify teachers and staff of the threat.

"Everyone has their own territory to check for anything unusual. One time we had the bomb squad check an unidentified bag found in the back of a classroom. It turned out to be someone's lunch," says Blecke.

A call coming from an adult in the later part of the day does draw more concern and at times the school is evacuated under the disguise of a fire drill.

Many years ago a male student was caught in the school with a live bomb. According to Prin. Charles Roberts of Grayslake High School. "He intended to blow-up the washroom." The student was expelled and prosecuted.

In the last few years Grant High School received eight to 10 bomb threats a year but the school got none last year, according to Assistant Supt. Don Cullaby. The school is generally evacuated unless a prank call is detected.

According to a representative of Lake Zurich High School, that school has received no bomb threats in the last five years.

John Davis, principal of Mundelein High School said, "We get bomb threats on the average of once a year. Sometimes we'll get more in a cluster and then none for a long time."

"With the size and the myriad of nooks and crannies in the average high school, if one wanted to really hide a bomb that would explode, it would be almost impossible to search everywhere," said Blecke, noting the hollow ceiling in most high schools.

He added, if one actually wanted to set an explosion, they probably wouldn't call in a warning.

Every effort is made by the high schools to trace any bomb threat calls and the perpetrator is promised prompt prosecution.

When a heart attack strikes, time is as precious as life itself.

The sooner you receive expert medical attention after the onset of a heart attack, the better your chances for recovery.

For the people of Lake County, expert medical attention is as close as Victory Memorial Hospital. We not only train the paramedics in northern Lake County, but we're located just a few minutes from your home, and our state-of-the-art emergency department is staffed by board-certified doctors and nurses prepared to respond to any cardiac emergency. (Board Certified means a doctor has reached the highest possible level of accreditation in his or her medical specialty.)

When a heart attack victim enters our doors, we immediately begin to stabilize his or her condition. Once stable, some patients may require the administration of modern medications that can effectively restore circulation to the blocked arteries of the heart.

Victory Memorial physicians are fully qualified and well experienced in treating heart attack patients. Patients requiring cardiac catheterization can undergo the procedure at Victory Memorial through a technical exchange program we have initiated with the cardiologists of St. Luke's Medical Center in Milwaukee, a leading cardiac care facility in the Midwest.

Our association with St. Luke's also helps those patients who may require more extensive treatment. Should that need arise, we're prepared to transport patients to St. Luke's.

If you would like to learn more about the comprehensive heart care at Victory Memorial, ask your doctor. Or, for a free physician referral or a free brochure outlining our heart care program, call (708) 360-4101.

Race is on to halt border car racetrack

by GLORIA DAVIS
Lakeland Newspapers

More than 200 residents of Bristol Twp., living just north of the Wisconsin-Illinois border, just west of Kenosha, are raising a heated war against a proposed auto racetrack, set to be built by Brainerd International, on 280 acres at Hwys. CJ and Q.

Brainerd has received permits from the Bristol Town Board, but had its application for an air quality permit denied in lieu of additional information by the Wis. Dept. of Natural Resources.

Opponents of the track, who call themselves the Bristol Community Action Committee, are trying to stop Bristol Twp. Chairman Noel Elfering from selling property he owns to the racetrack developers.

Elfering claims that the track will be good for the area, bringing more tax money, jobs and revenues for the area's commercial enterprises.

The Bristolites opposing the track want Illinois residents who live along the border from Antioch to Hwy. I-94 to be aware of the problems the coming of the track could bring.

Antioch's Mayor Robert Wilton says that though he doesn't know the fine parts of the racetrack plan, until someone shows he how the possible additional influx of thousands of people per summer weekend can help Antioch, he is "not highly in favor of it."

"I can see a big increase in traffic coming from the west to the track, from the Rockford-Woodstock-Crystal Lake areas, jamming Hwy. 173 and North Ave., and costing the village money for traffic control."

"I don't really think any revenues garnered by retailers in the area will be enough to offset the cost of road repairs and traffic control," adds Wilton.

At present, there is a bill in the Wisconsin Legislature calling for big license fees for outdoor theaters.

This was brought about after Walworth County claimed that traffic control, polic-

The additional traffic congestion along the I-system, added to that already present because of Bristol's commercial explosion at Hwy. 50 and the traffic to come from the Dairyland Greyhound Dog Track, set

Antioch Mayor Robert Wilton - 'I don't think too highly of the idea of an automobile racetrack along the Wisconsin-Illinois border. It could hurt Antioch because of traffic increase on Rte. 173 and North Ave. and the cost in traffic control.'

ing and cleanup after big rock concerts at Alpine Valley Theatre in East Troy, cost the county over $200,000 last year.

"The racetrack could have the same effect on the areas surrounding it," added Wilton.

At present, Brainerd's agenda for 1991 shows racing events scheduled for 30 weekends, from May to October.

Another big concern of the track's opponents is its effect on the area's sewers and the possibility of additional air pollution in an area already red-tagged for its high pollution count.

"There will most certainly be a lot of additional air pollution from the cars running on the track, not to mention that caused by all the additional traffic from the race audiences," said Wilton.

Much of that traffic could come from Illinois areas where automobile emission tests are not required.

to open in Kenosha County, just west of the I-system next summer, is one of the biggest concerns of the racetrack's opponents.

So irate are those opposing the track that there was even talk about recalling the 19-year town chairman if he continues to back the track.

This would be only the second time in Wisconsin history that a southeastern Wisconsin township head was recalled. It happened to Salem Twp. Chairman Howard Gehrke over the Salem sewers in the 1980s. He was reelected the next election.

Elfering continues to say that the track will help bring more prosperity to the area, adding that as a farmer who suffered from the drought of 1988, a barn burning, and the poisoning of 16 pregnant cows, he needs the money he would get for the sale of his land to the auto-racing company.

Chamber dances into '90

by GLORIA DAVIS
Lakeland Newspapers

Close to 200 people attended the annual installation dinner-dance of the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry at the Landmark Restaurant, last Saturday.

New Chamber President Jack Thelen presented a giant gavel to outgoing president Joanne Linker, thanking her for all the work she did for the Chamber during the past year.

Linker said she would be still be busy with Chamber business even though she would not head the group this year.

Thelen, from Thelen Gravel, who is also a director of the State Bank of Antioch, welcomed his new officers, Roger Sorensen, Sorensen Ins., first vice president; Laddie Korecek, Johnson

Jewelers, second vice president; Russell Dusak, James Hamlin and Co., treasurer and Allan Robbins, First National Bank of Antioch, secretary.

Thelen also introduced the Chamber board to members, their guests and Chamber supporters.

On the new board are, Kevin Schoudel, Raymond Chevrolet; Sandra Leonard, Antioch Quick Print; Robert Kuzlik, Sears, and Mary Kay Tointon, Antioch Family Sports.

After a delicious dinner, there was dancing to the music of Steam Heat.

Top rug cutters were Mr. and Mrs. Wally Jaskowski, Dick Paddock and his rhythmic wife and despite a week-long flu attack, Mayor Robert Wilton and wife Leta wasted little time in tripping the light fantastic.

New bathhouse rises

The new bathhouse, with handicap facilities, at the Lions Club pool at the Village Aqua Center in Williams Park is taking shape. Bathhouse will be ready and pool will open this summer. Passes will be on sale in March.

New bathhouse at pool becoming park's reality

On July 17, 1989, the Antioch Parks and Recreation Dept. received permission from the Lake County Health Dept. and the Illinois State Dept. of Environment Services to build a new bathhouse building.

Both departments were very receptive to the new bathhouse, especially the handicapped facilities. The new bathhouse will be very similar to the old. The main difference will be the front window and entry way, and the handicapped facilities.

Plans for the construction progressed slowly. Theresa Weber, Antioch's director of parks and recreation, recalls talking to several members of the Antioch Lions Club about the proposed project in July of 1988.

The Antioch Lions Club is financing $20,000 of the pool project. Potential contractors for the masonry work on the building turned in bids this fall.

The village public works department, knowing this project should be done by spring, allocated time to build the bathhouse this winter.

Season passes will be sold at last year's prices: family pass (4) in Antioch is $80; family pass outside Antioch is $90.

Each additional family member will be $8; a single pass in Antioch is $30 and a single pass for those living outside Antioch $40.

Passes go on sale March 1 at the village hall. If anyone has any questions call the parks and recreation department at (708)395-2160.

Teen Moms struggle to finish school and raise baby

Editor's note: The following article is the second segment of a four-part series entitled Is Super Mom Still Flying High? The series is based on working mothers in today's society. Follow the series in future issues of Lakeland Newspapers.

by DONNA DUNCAN
Lakeland Newspapers

After school, 16-year-old Cecilia Mena sits at the kitchen table to do her homework. Her eight-month-old son sits on the floor beside her, playing with a toy.

Then she goes to work — as a mother. She changes diapers, bottle feeds and plays with her son.

For many teen moms, picking up schoolbooks and leaving the diaper bag behind is impossible.

An increasing number of teenage mothers drop out of school because they cannot find affordable day care.

Some teens live with parents or in-laws while finishing school. Others are forced out and must find a job to support their new family.

Mena was able to return to her sophomore classes at Mundelein High School because her mother and boyfriend's mother share babysitting their grandson.

"A good percentage of teenage mothers do not go back to school because they don't have day care," said Sally Hauck, director, Project PASS of Lake County Center for Drop-out Prevention.

Hauck added infant care is hard to find or too expensive for the teenage parent.

"It used to be grandma would watch the baby, but if the mother is 14, the grandmother is 55 and still working herself. There's nobody (in the family) to take care of the child," Hauck said.

Hauck, who works in drop-out prevention, said school officials in Waukegan are tackling the problem of losing female students after they have a baby because they cannot find day care.

"More are dropping out because they have a difficult time finding someone to be with the baby," said Donna Speer, director of Teen Moms, a support group for teenage mothers. Speer added citizens will end up paying for public aid because those who drop out will be unskilled.

Speer currently works with 32 teenage moms, most of whom live in the Waukegan, North Chicago and Zion areas.

Teen moms deal with peer pressure, three generational living, loss of friends, financial hardship and learning child development.

"One thing we'd like to get is day care in the schools," she said. She added other cities with high teenage pregnancy rates have subsidized day care centers designed for teenage moms who go to school or work.

Waukegan has the highest amount of teenage pregnancies in the county, based on Lake County Health Dept. statistics.

In 1988, out of 1,486 live births, 253 were to Waukegan teens. In other areas, the number of babies born to teens were as follows: North Chicago, 81; Round Lake Beach, 40; Gurnee, 14; Mundelein, 19; Zion, 80; Libertyville, 9; Lake Zurich, 8; Lake Forest, 1 and Vernon Hills, 3. Deerfield had no reported teen births.

Roy Stevens, assistant principal at Waukegan East High School, also works with project DRIVE, (Developing Resources for Independence through Vocational Education). This educational program is geared for young homemakers returning to school or teen parents currently enrolled in high school.

In an effort to help teen moms return to school, Stevens is trying to start a state funded teen/toddler program. The purpose is for teenage moms to bring their children to day care, while attending vocational classes.

The majority of teenage mothers are not on public aid. In fact, many are college-bound, straight A students, Stevens said.

Stevens said he could not give statistics for the amount who drop out because students are withdrawn for non-attendance, not for pregnancy.

Along with the day care dilemma, teenage moms also face a tough battle because of a stigma placed on them by society. Many of the teens are forced to move out of their parents' home, because parents don't want or cannot afford to members. Mena said some friends don't mind when she brings the baby along for a weekend get-together, but others criticize her.

"People look at you different. Some ask me, 'You actually show him off?' They think I should act like a mom and not go out," she said.

Meanwhile, Mena takes her son everywhere — the store, movies or school dances.

Although Mena's mother's insurance covered her prenatal medical expenses, Mena now lives with her boyfriend's parents. She said the whole family pitches in to buy clothes or toys for the baby. Both her mother and boyfriend's mother watches the baby.

When Mena and her boyfriend go out, other family members agree to watch the baby.

The high school sophomore is enrolled in the DRIVE program and takes data processing classes at the Lake County Area Vocational Center. She hopes to pursue a career in interior design.

Sometimes, she may stay home with the baby, if the two grandparents cannot do it. But she must keep up with the schoolwork. She is not excluded from assignments because she is a mom, but teachers sometimes may allow her more time to complete a project, she noted.

Is Super Mom still flying high?

support the new mom and child.

Showing off a new baby is part of the joy of motherhood. But for too many teenage moms, showing off their baby brings cold stares from friends or family

When she graduates, she hopes to go to work, while a family friend offered to babysit.

The social life teen moms used to have before the baby is drastically reduced because she is responsible for another person.

"My social life is cut back. Sometimes the family watches him so we could go out with friends. Or sometimes, we take him with us," Mena said.

Most teen moms are not married and try to return to school and sometimes even hold down

Cathy Carr, Mundelein High School nurse, said one teen mom who graduated last year was able to finish school because she wanted to provide a better life for her two children. She lived with in-laws who watched the children while she attended school and worked after school.

Mena advises other pregnant teens to finish school, because she has friends who are "not getting anywhere."

On Mena's first day back to school, she said she "wanted to go back home" because she felt guilty and missed her baby, but she had enough family support and ambition to continue with school.

Carr noted a larger percentage of teenage girls keep their babies and drop out of school, a small percentage give up the babies for adoption and a small percentage continue school.

"It depends on the girl's determination and family support. Some families have been through the experience themselves and will help arrange or pay for child care," Carr said.

GCHS Board continues personnel, property talk

Grayslake Community High School Board of Education will be meeting in a recessed session Feb. 8 to discuss matters tabled at Monday's meeting.

The board decided to hold the recessed meeting after discussing personnel for two hours in executive session. A handful of teachers waited.

Earlier in the meeting, Grayslake Education Assn. representative Jon Peterson said he wished to discuss some matters on the agenda but those were tabled.

"We're trying to give the board some time to discuss crucial issues," board member Jeanne Kearby, who suggested the recessed meeting, said.

The contract with the GEA is up this year. Also, the board on Feb. 8 will discuss land acquisition in executive session. The meeting will begin at 7 p.m.

Only routine items were discussed Monday, which was a postponed meeting from last Thursday's snowstorm.

The board did hear a plea from two bus company representatives regarding a penalty the school imposed for late delivery of buss this school year.

Jerry Heidt of Northern Illinois Bus Sales of Evanston, told the board the reason the busses arrived late, one in December, was a wildcat strike at a General Motors plant.

"Everybody did as much as they could at this end to get the busses to you," Heidt said.

The school imposed a $21,550 fine.

The board, acting on a recommendation from Supt. Ted Van Dorn, did agree to behavioral disorder students from the Special Education Dist. of Lake County.

Principal Charles Roberts said the high school would hire a teacher for those seven students. Van Dorn said the school would rather have those students at the high school.

The board awarded a contract to Cary-Geldan for work on stage lights. The total cost will be $32,488. It is expected the work will be done by Feb. 28.

An insurance proposal was accepted from Insurance Allied of Chicago. All benefits will remain the same.

Financial Aid

Grant Community High School has scheduled an evening meeting from 7 to 8 p.m. on Thursday, Feb. 8, to discuss how students can obtain financial aid to continue their education at the college level.

Lakeland Newspapers Lake County At A Glance

Slain swans

CHAIN-OF-LAKES—The Illinois Dept. of Conservation is investigating the killing of two swans in a channel of water between Petite and Fox Lakes. Two youths are being questioned by officials after they were seen by Ron Baker, a resident near the area where the swans were slain.

New Prosecutor

LAKE ZURICH — Signaling another change of direction from past administrations, the Lake Zurich Village Board appointed Waukegan attorney Jay Ukena as the village's new prosecutor. The appointment also ends the 12-year term of Howard Lang.

Sno-Fest needs cold

LIBERTYVILLE—Snow, ice and cold weather notwithstanding, the first Sno-Fest '90 will be this weekend. Despite the lack of all three, there will be an all-day Blizzard softball tourney on Saturday, Feb. 3, Frisbee golf tourney using Frisbees and hay rides instead of sleigh rides—all at Butler Lake Park. Held only if snow and ice permit will be a snow sculpturing contest, ice-fishing derby and ice-skating contest. On Sunday, Feb. 4, there will be a downtown treasure hunt starting at 2 p.m.

Dist. 34 rates high

ANTIOCH — The Antioch Dist. 34 Grade School Board of Education heard a report from Supt. Donald Skidmore that, despite growing enrollment, the district has seen a constant and consistent growth in student achievement in the last 10 years. Skidmore went on to say that, according to a countywide report, Dist. 34 rates sixth from the bottom in a list of 27 school districts in expenditure per pupil for education. The average cost per pupil in Lake County is $4,408. Dist. 34 spent $3,141 per pupil in 1989.

Library meeting

GURNEE—Residents of the Warren-Newport Public Library Dist. are invited to attend an organizational meeting of the citizens' committee at 7:30 p.m. on Feb. 7. The committee is a group of concerned library patrons who want to help publicize the library's financial needs and to encourage voters to participate in the March 20 election. The library board is seeking a 10 cents per $100 assessed valuation increase in the corporate tax rate from .15 to .25.

Review plaza plans

MUNDELEIN—Plans are still on track by retired Mayor Colin McRae to convert the closed Jewel-Osco plaza in the downtown area to a mini-shopping mall known as City Hall Center. He is recalculating remodeling costs and reduced rental revenues against former plans rejected by the village board to rent some of the building for storage by an adjoining industry and construct a L-shaped addition to increase the number of tenants.

Oppose substation

LINCOLNSHIRE—Lincolnshire residents are steamed about a proposed 5,400 square-foot fire substation for the southeast corner of Rte. 22 and Riverwoods Rd. Residents feared the substation would create noise, jeopardize pedestrian safety and decrease property values. Vernon Fire Protection Dist. Chief Ted Tarr said the proposed site would provide quicker response to areas north and south of Riverwoods Rd.

A decision is expected for Feb. 12.

Father's fight

WAUCONDA — A father's love for his son has kept Wauconda businessman Len Bates busy for almost a decade. Bates, for the last eight years, has been trying to get his son, John, out of a Tennessee jail, where he is serving a life sentence for the murder of John L. Tinker. The elder Bates and Chattanooga Atty. Edward T. Landis claim John Bates could not have possibly committed the murder. According to Landis, Bates was in Austin, Texas, the same day the murder took place in Chattanooga, Tenn.

Shimer gets grant

WAUKEGAN—Shimer College in Waukegan has been the recipient of two major grants of $50,000 each. The McCormick Charitable Trust has just forwarded $25,000 to Shimer as the last installment of that grant, while the Carroll Family Foundation has donated $16,666 to the college as its match for more than $33,000 raised by the college amongst members of the business community of Greater Waukegan. The Carroll Family Foundation announced a three-year $50,000 matching gift to Shimer last January.

Waiting on chief

LINDENHURST—Residents of Lindenhurst are still waiting to hear who will be their new chief of police. Although a panel of three former police chiefs interviewed six candidates over a two-day period last week and recommended two as police chief material, Mayor Robert Ratch has been detained from making a decision. Ratch was rushed to Lake Forest Hospital last Wednesday and had emergency surgery Thursday.

Wedding Expo '90

Businesses from all over Lake County participated in Wedding Expo '90, sponsored by Debbie's Floral Shoppe and Lakeland Newspapers. Here, participants wave the winning slips of papers containing the names of the lucky winners of cash and various other prizes. Throughout the program, Bartels, director of marketing and strategic planning for Manpower Temporary Services, will be recognizing volunteers and companies that enable the United Way of Lake County to continue to provide funding to 88 programs and 37 agencies in the community.

The Thank You Celebration will close with a special multi-media production highlighting the volunteers and events that made United Way of Lake County's campaign a success.

The cost of the dinner is $15.15 per person. For

HOMEOWNER TAX REFORM WINNER

QUESTION: How did the homeowner make out under the latest Tax Reform Act?

ANSWER: In the midst of drastic cutbacks in investment preferences everywhere else in the tax code, owners of first and second homes are the big winners.

Deductibility of mortgage interest and property taxes for primary and second homes remains completely intact. This is often the largest tax deduction for most homeowners and will continue to be so. Also intact are the rules that allow you to defer tax on the profit when you sell if you roll it over into another home and the $125,000 tax exclusion from profit if you are over age 55.

HOMEOWNERS were the big winners under the Tax Reform Act. Your home remains a great tax shelter.

Letting courts speak

Illinois lawmakers will tackle the education funding issue this spring in an attempt to revamp the entire school funding process. That's the good news.

The bad news is that members of the General Assembly appear to be willing to let the entire complicated school funding mess slide into the courts for a solution. Call this the Texas Strategy. Texas has been embroiled in an educational funding impasse, much like Illinois, where the courts got involved when politicians failed to produce a solution.

State Sen. Jack Schaffer readily admits that there is doubt whether the General Assembly can solve the funding problem without intervention from the courts.

That's too bad because it fortifies a long standing trend in government: when things get too rocky for politicians they bail out in favor of the courts.

Gov. Thompson's well received State-of-the-State message included a focus on education as one of the legislature's top priorities. No argument here. The governor stopped short of outlining a solution, however. In their quiet moments, more and more lawmakers are talking about an increase in the state income tax that will answer both school needs and provide real estate tax relief. We'll undoubtedly get to that after the courts have their say.

Speedy change

It is good news that rental rehabilitation grants will be scrutinized more closely by the Lake County Housing Authority. LCHA acted to tighten its policies after a citizen complaint that an imbalance of rental units was being created in Fox Lake with an adverse effect on schools.

The authority will make certain that rental rehabilitation support is for existing rental units only and not used to "create" rental property. Director Alon Jeffrey said the new policy also will include "early on" notification of building commissioners in all county municipalities.

The former policy was misguided in the sense that the character of a community could be altered without anyone in local officialdom knowing about it. We like the speed with which LCHA made adjustments when a threatening trend was pointed out. That sensitivity isn't often seen in a public bureau.

Recycling overrated

Doubt is beginning to mount that state lawmakers are putting too much reliance on recycling as the salvation to growing solid waste disposal problems.

This doubt was intensified by the enthusiastic reaction of members of the General Assembly to the call from Gov. James Thompson for a 50 percent reduction in the amount of trash going into Illinois landfills and incinerators by the end of the century. State Rep. Virginia Frederick (R-Lake Forest) seemed to echo the sentiment of a majority of her colleagues when she remarked after the governor spoke that by promoting household recycling, natural resources and the environment can be protected.

While the governor's call of 50 percent reduction is a laudable benchmark, it's probably totally impractical. Recycling is and will continue to be important, but it's only part of the solution. The technology and markets to handle all the recycled material don't exist today and probably won't be available for a number of years. What does exist in the way of technology and markets for by-products is incineration. The Lake County Solid Waste Management Agency study recommended a combination of landfill, incineration and recycling as the way to go. We heartily endorse the report. Lake County officials should push for implementation of the recommendation, the sooner the better.

Letters To The Editor

Martin cheap shots

Editor:

I have come to the conclusion that Jack Martin (1) has just moved to Lake County; (2) is a die-hard Democrat (3) just got off the boat.

I am in favor of controlled building not where these outside developers come in the county and put eight homes on an acre lot. Just look at Butterfield Rd. We have only two percent of our wetlands left in the county.

My first tax bill was $37 and now over $2,000. This is due to assessed valuation caused by the high prices being paid for vacant property. Another reason for the tax increase is the 86 percent increase the last 10 years for operating our school systems.

I am very happy to have had "Mike" and "Norm" represent the taxpayers over these many years.

I am glad that Jan Sturgeon and Robert Ainslie weren't swayed by the "Cheap Shots" of Mr. Martin. I also think that Larry Leafblad and Robert Boness are more qualified than Martin's five hand picked candidates.

Cycles on a rampage

Editor:

Residential areas are not the proper places for racing, yet racing motor vehicles are invading the frozen waters of the Chain O' Lakes.

With the full approval and consent of the Lake County Building and Zoning Dept., motorcycle races on ice have been scheduled on Lake Marie for every Sunday of January and February, cyclists appearing as early as 8 a.m. and continuing to make their deafening presence heard until nightfall (although official times are given as 11 a.m. to 4 p.m.).

According to a spokesman of the sponsoring Northern Illinois Racing Assn., 124 racers participated the first Sunday and 132 the second. On connecting Channel Lake, snowmobile races are also held every Sunday, hours from 9 a.m. until 6 p.m. Permits are issued with no restrictions as to number of participants.

Invasion into our region seems imminent, as these same racers are now requesting from the forest preserve district the creation of dirt trails in a "300-500-acre site in an isolated area." How "isolated" such trails would prove to be is questionable in view of their already having succeeded in gaining permission to race on the over-crowded waters of the

Viewpoint

Affordable should mean exactly that

by BILL SCHROEDER

In a locality where your typical three-bedroom, two-bath, two-car garage (with the typical $200,000, plus, price tag) is basic housing, more and more concerned business and political leaders are turning their thoughts to this question: What is being done about providing affordable housing?

And, in the context of the times, affordable housing is not what Yuppies or DINKS (Double Income, No Kids) can afford. It refers to housing for the young, poor and senior citizens.

Before the year is up, members of the Lake County Economic Development Commission likely will take up the problem of the virtual disappearance of affordable housing in an area with a booming economy. And if they do, Ed Surroz, a new commission member, undoubtedly will have a thing or two to say. Hopefully, fellow commission members will listen to Surroz, 67, a real estate broker/builder who has been in business in Waukegan and central Lake County ever since he got out of the Navy after World War II.

Surroz has a ready solution to the affordable housing question. It is a "Back-to-the-Future" approach, almost ridiculously simple, but complicated because it would require throwing off more than 50 years of thinking about what our community considers appropriate housing.

Basically, Ed's solution goes back to a repopularization—and making possible legally and financially—the two-family home, the old-fashioned two-flat that persons 60 and over might remember their grandparents living in. More importantly, that their grandparents owned.

Surroz reasons that the key to the two-family residential unit is pride of ownership. "You've got the owner on the premises, taking care of his property. He's not interested in making a killing on rental income, just covering the mortgage payment, real estate taxes and expenses. Chances are the owner will be satisfied with a below-market rent in a trade off for desirable neighbors," the down-to-earth businessman reasons.

The beauty of the two-family home is that everyone wins—the owner, the renter, the community. The various owner/renter combinations all amount to a win-win situation: The senior citizen renting to newlyweds; the young couple getting ahead by renting to senior citizens; lower income families getting decent housing at a bargain. Another plus: The two family home will have to be built.

We like the Surroz Plan. In fact, the two-flat was the way urban neighborhoods used to be built. A big problem is that society has been brainwashed for more than 40 years into thinking that the little white cottage with the fenced in back yard in the suburbs is the only way to go. The American Dream. The hard reality is that the American Dream is out of reach for a growing segment of society. One drawback, Ed—maybe a couple. The schools won't like two-family residences because they'll carry a lower evaluation. The village board will get itself all tangled up over zoning hassles. The two-family residence, however, still is an efficient, affordable way to provide housing.

Good luck to your plan, Ed.

THE WORLD CHANGES SO FAST NO ONE CAN BE WRONG ALL THE TIME

roads snarled in traffic, and a forest preserve that kills deer and locks out its residents."

My 1988 tax bill in Libertyville shows that: (1) less than 10 percent of this soaring bill went to the county, (2) exactly 1.75 percent went to the forest preserve, and (3) over 71 percent went to our schools and junior college. It seems the "rascal" majority in the County Board account for less than 10 percent of this tax mess.

In fact, it is Mr. Martin and his friends' commitment to build, build, build, that results in unreasonably high school taxes as these schools struggle with educating the additional children. Mr. Martin and his friends' mess also results in roads that cannot absorb the resulting traffic (and numerous other problems of too much growth).

Regarding Mr. Martin's last point, all of us have free access to the county forest preserves, such as Daniel Wright and Old School. And, what did the "rascal" majority have to do with the deer kill controversy? Please do not insult our intelligence, Mr. Martin.

Politically Speaking

by JOSEPH SOULAK
Lakeland Newspapers

This seems to be the letter-writing season. Following are excerpts from one written last week by F.T. "Mike" Graham of County Board Dist. 5 to county Republican Party Chairman Robert Neal. It is about what Graham (who Neal labels a "rascal") calls "short term, fair-weather Republicans" in Libertyville Twp.

"I was surprised to learn," Graham wrote, "that Jack Martin (of the Libertyville Saddle Shop, who has worked hard to defeat Graham) never voted in a Republican primary before 1984. He may secretly be a closet Democrat. His sister, Suzanne Herbes, is a Democrat precinct committeeman."

"It is not surprising Pat Connors (a friend of Martin's also opposed to Graham) pulled a Democratic ballot for the election of Waukegan mayor in 1989. Pat's father, William Connors, was a long-time Democratic powerhouse in Chicago and Springfield."

"I know how sternly you punish anyone who would dare to be a Democrat or support Democrats for public office. Records indicate Pam Newton (candidate for Dist. 5 County Board member) was a Democrat in 1988. At best, she must be considered a "mixed breed," at worst, a political opportunist. Talk is she was recruited by short-term Republican Jack Martin and party-switching Pat Connors. Will you label them rascals, too?"

"Added to all this, you must keep a constant lookout over your shoulder for Bob Depke (Warren Twp. supervisor), who seems to be moving in on you. We both know he will be all over you like a hungry wolf if he senses you are losing political strength."

"It is no wonder you are sometimes short tempered and ill humored."

Another primary election alliance has been forged.

Carol Calabresa, incumbent Dist. 5 County Board member seeking re-election, has joined forces with Libertyville Trustee Donald Coulson.

Both open spacers, they originally planned to go their separate ways in the March primary. "But we are appealing to the same type of people," Calabresa said of donations and votes.

That was before they found out the two other candidates, Robert Depke and Pam Newton, were pulling out all the stops in the head-on battle. That twosome has opened the same campaign headquarters in downtown Libertyville as Ralph Swank Jr. did in his race last spring that unseated incumbent Sup. F.T. "Mike" Graham.

Calabresa and Coulson have stiff odds to overcome in this war of open space vs. pro development. "We don't have the money to hire a Chicago attorney or PR firm," Calabresa said. "This election is a whole new ball game."

Two other candidates have jumped in bed together. They are running in Dist. 4 for seats vacated by County Board Chairman Norman Geary and incumbent Charlotte Kiesgen of Fox Lake.

Larry Leafblad of Highland Park, who came within earshot of winning a similar Dist. 4 race two years ago against Jim Fields of Antioch, is joining forces with Bob "Baseball Bob" Boness of Round Lake Beach. Boness was

Bob Boness

Roberta O'Reilly

Larry Leafblad

within 50 votes of dumping incumbent Mayor Carl Schrimpf last spring.

Campaign manager for Leafblad's half of the campaign is Dist. 4 County Board member Suzie Schmidt of Lake Villa. Leafblad has high name recognition by virtue of his musical Scotch Lads and preeminent position at WKRS-AM. Schmidt is the No. 2 or No. 3 open-space advocate, behind F.T. "Mike" Graham of Libertyville.

"Baseball Bob" is synonymous with the Round Lake Little League program. Boness thinks he and Leafblad can hit a home run in the March election.

The Republican Central Committee met to make primary endorsements at meetings last week and again this week. All it did was to give its blessing to the safe countywide candidates on the ballot.

This week's meeting was held in hopes that one of the candidates might have dropped out of the appellate court race to give Lake County Judge Jack Hoogasian a clear shot.

As for the County Board hopefuls, they will have to keep hoping. No endorsements are planned by the Central Committee. District-by-district endorsements are encouraged—if the committeemen can agree. That is easier said than done.

Apparently the committee doesn't want to get burned like two years ago. That is when Roberta "Bobbie" O'Reilly of Long Grove overwhelmed her endorsed incumbent foe in the Dist. 6 County Board race.

I do wish to thank Mr. Martin for providing his views on local candidates in his letter. As Mr. Martin and his friends provide their assessments of candidates, this will make it quite easy for many of us to determine who to vote for, and against, in the upcoming County Board election.

Mr. Martin seems to favor Robert Depke, Robert Grever, Charles Johnston, Charlotte Kiesgen, Colin McRae and Pamela Newton. Apparently, this means some of the "good and honest people of Lake County," those of us who would like to see substantial portions of this county preserved (not paved), should favor the other people that Mr. Martin lists: Carol Calabresa, Bruce Hansen, John Reindl, Donald Coulson, Larry Leafblad and Robert Boness.

Like Mr. Martin, we will also wait to hear the candidates debate the issues and explain their positions. After all this, if I have any uncertainty, I will be saving Mr. Martin's letter to help me make up my mind.

Private better than public

Editor:

The solid waste disposal (garbage) "crisis" has attracted the attention of profiteers and professional bureaucrats. There are millions of dollars to be made, along with bureaucratic creation of high paying jobs, by exploiting the public demand for a quick and easy solution for garbage disposal.

This attitude invites continual escalation of costs due to environmental ignorance and apathy. These costs involve expanding bureaucracy, progressive increases in landfill dumping (tipping) fees; new landfill siting costs and the court costs resulting from local opposition to the sitings; grossly inflated costs of mass-burn incinerators (between 1/4 and 1/2 billion dollars); cost of pollution clean ups; premature deaths related to increased pollution exposure; property value reductions due to the proximity of landfills and incinerators; and the general deterioration of environmental conditions surrounding inadequate landfills and malfunctioning incinerators.

Lake County has become a competitor of free enterprise with a composting plan it is trying to implement. The county plan, as submitted to the Illinois Dept. of Energy and Natural Resources, is requesting $110,000 from the state, and $50,000 from four participating municipalities. The municipal contributions are divided as follows: Deerfield, $18,000; Libertyville, $17,000; Vernon Hills, $11,000; and Lincolnshire, $4,000. These amounts are charged to each of these municipalities.

The county will have to contribute $130,157 to make up the total cost of the project, even though other municipalities are not participating. In addition to their up-front money, participating municipalities will also have to pay for their hauling costs. The county project is to be implemented this spring in spite of the fact that the Lake County solid waste implementation committee has not been formed as yet. Please note that this entire project is being funded by public funds. The total cost is $290,157.

The compost project proposed by a private hauler for Mundelein, part of Libertyville Twp., Green Oaks, Gurnee and Warren Twp. requires no up-front money from these local governments, will be composted and land applied on 600-acres of privately owned farmland, and paid for by purchasing curbside pickup bags at 80 cents each, or picked up in garbage cans. The state grant request is $47,500. The hauler will contribute $189,657 in in-kind and monetary contributions. Public funds for this project total $47,500. Public funds for the county project total $290,157. This extreme difference is due to the fact that the county has never been in the waste disposal business. It should also be noted that landscape waste composting projects are not generally money making propositions.

The reason a locally owned hauling company can operate a compost project so much more economically is based on the fact that this company has been in business for 38 years. The company also has 10 years experience in land applications, and one year's experience in compost processing. No publicly owned land will be needed for these composting processes. The county is petitioning to make it legal to compost on Forest Preserve property. There is much public sentiment against their petition.

A privately owned disposal company can operate a composting project so much more efficiently because of experience, know-how, company owned equipment, staging areas and maintenance shops developed over 38 years in uninterrupted business. Considering these advantages, it is easy to understand how a free enterprise company can operate on 16 percent of the public funds required by the county. The county has no equipment; no experience and no site to start a composting project. The county solid waste plan does not designate the county as an operational unit. It was never intended that the county enter into the solid waste disposal business as an operator.

The Men's Garden Club of Waukegan will hold its monthly meeting on Monday, Feb. 5 at 7:30 p.m. at the Waukegan Public Library, 128 N. County St., Waukegan. Featured speaker will be Dr. Gene Gasiorkiewicz, professor of science at Parkside College, Kenosha, Wis. His topic will be "Everything you ever wanted to know about mushrooms." All interested gardeners, and mushroom pickers, are invited to attend the February meeting. Refreshments will be served. Call (708)623-5046 for further information.

Volunteers Needed

Public Action to Deliver Shelter (PADS) runs each of its shelters on a three shift basis. The second shift (11 p.m. to 3 a.m.) and the third shift (3 to 7 a.m.) are vital parts of the PADS program. Volunteers are needed for these shifts. All PADS volunteers are required to attend a training seminar before starting at a site. The next training session will be from 7 to 9 p.m. on Sunday, Feb. 4 at the Round Lake Community Church, N. Goodnow and Avilon in Round Lake.

Ron and Brian's quadruples sales

Award winners

Ron and Brian's Suzuki, located on Grand Ave. in Waukegan, has won the American Suzuki 'Super Service Award' for the second year in a row. Lakeland Newspapers

In the six years they've owned their Suzuki dealership, Ron Trecker and Brian Parpan are proud to say they have quadrupled their business.

In 1984, the former employees of Suzuki of Waukegan purchased the business they re-named Ron and Brian's Suzuki. They now sell 250 motorcycles a year, compared to the former annual sales of 30, and won American Suzuki's 'Super Service Award' two years in a row. The award is given to less than five percent of the 13,000 Suzuki dealers in the United States.

The young partners attribute their success to modernization. They say they began improving on the old store immediately after purchasing the business. One method of modernizing was by installing computers, which not only makes record keeping easier for them, but gives the customers faster and better service because it automates the service, parts, sales and accounting departments. The service department, managed by Avery Innis, was also updated.

In 1986, Ron and Brian's Suzuki took on Ski Doo snowmobiles and since then added Suzuki generators and Ultranaotics watercrafts, which include the Sea Flash and the Wet Bike. They also sell the new Triton aluminum trailer line.

The purchase of a new building last July enabled Trecker and Parpan to accomplish their goal of having spacious, well-planned and well-lit space for their growing business, as well as plenty of parking.

Trecker, 30, of Waukegan, and Parpan, 32, of Antioch, say they spend most of their time working in their store and laugh at the question of how they spend their "free time."

"Over the Fourth of July weekend while everyone was out motorcycling, we were here working," said Parpan, adding that July 4 was when they made their move a few doors down Grand Ave. to their present location just east of Lewis Ave.

But both men say they are enjoying the business and that their customers like to know "Ron and Brian" isn't just in a name. One way they show their appreciation to their customers is by being racing sponsors through Innis Racing Service, a division of Ron and Brian's Suzuki that is owned by Innis, a former American Motorcycle Assn. professional road racer.

Parpan says one doesn't have to own a motorized sport vehicle to shop at Ron and Brian's Suzuki. The new building has allowed room for an expansive accessories department where such "hot" items as Oakley sunglasses and fluorescent clothing are sold, along with standard items such as helmets, goggles and snowmobile suits.

Trecker and Parpan say spending so much time together hasn't hurt their friendship or their partnership.

"I think what we do is communicate a lot. It's just like a marriage.

"We put our cards on the table and usually one of us is right," Parpan said.

Considering Switching an Hourly Employee to a Salary Employee?

This week's question from
The Illinois Chamber HELPLINE

Q. We are considering putting an hourly employee on salary so we won't have to pay her weekly overtime. Anything wrong with that?

A. Yes. Just because an individual is paid a salary rather than an hourly rate, they are not automatically exempt from overtime pay. To be exempt an employee must fit the definition of executive, professional or administrator and be paid a guaranteed weekly salary of a specified amount.

'Show and Tell'

Elementary school students watch as a Commonwealth Edison engineer points out the hazards of carelessness near overhead power lines. Commonwealth Edison is offering this unique traveling "Show and Tell" program which is designed to teach young and old alike how to co-exist safely with electricity.

Edison 'Show and Tell' teaches electrical safety

Commonwealth Edison is offering a unique traveling "show-and-tell" program, featuring a model city street in miniature with live electric lines, to demonstrate the potential hazards of overhead wires.

The safety model has been designed to effectively educate persons of all ages about the potential dangers of electricity.

Each year, hundreds of persons are injured because they were not aware of the dangers of handling electricity. Commonwealth Edison is committed to help its 3.1 million customers know how to properly co-exist with electricity - preventing accidents through education.

The new program introduced by Edison features a scaled replica of a city street with miniature people, realistically depicting the hazards of carelessness near overhead power lines. The unique visual model is energized to 12,000 volts and simulates accidents involving a kite, sailboat, crane, TV antenna, a tree making contact with a power line, a downed power line contacting a vehicle, and other statistically frequent accidents involving electricity. A special feature is an energized "cut out" which blows a fuse when an aluminum ladder contacts the electrical service line at the model house.

Schools, youth organization, or other group can request to have the electrical safety demonstration presented free of charge at your designated location.

To book a date call (312)294-3059 and ask for the Speakers Bureau. Call at least two weeks prior to the date you wish to have the presentation, and have an alternate date available.

FINANCIAL FOCUS

reported by Brosius D'Arcy

Probably one of the most misunderstood features of the Tax Reform Act of 1986 concerns your Individual Retirement Account.

Thousands of taxpayers have stopped contributing to their IRAs either because they believe they're no longer eligible for an IRA or because they believe they can no longer make deductible contributions. Both assumptions may be wrong and a valuable retirement program wasted.

Let's begin by separating fact from fiction on who's eligible for an IRA. The simple fact is that anyone under age 70 1/2 with earned income can make IRA contributions.

Whether or not these contributions are tax deductible is based upon two things: one, whether you or your spouse participate in an employer-sponsored retirement plan, and, two, your adjusted gross income.

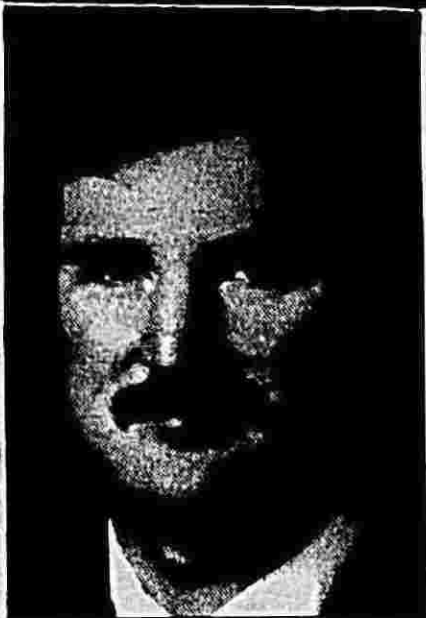

The IRA is one of the most far-sighted aids to personal retirement that Congress ever introduced. Don't let Tax Reform 1986 discourage you from taking advantage of an excellent retirement-planning tool. The IRA may be wounded, but it's not dead.

Film Review

"Glory" is not just a black history film, but the story of an important part of the American Civil War as it relates the true tale of America's first all-black fighting regiment, the 54th Massachusetts Volunteers.

At least, that's what this reviewer expected to see. The casting of Mathew Broderick in the part of Col. Robert Shaw, the real-life commander of the 54th, blows a fog over the picture's intent.

Is it the story of the first black fighting men or the first black soldiers with a white commander?

If it is the story of the first black regiment and their heroic deeds, why weren't real profiles of black soldiers used as was done in Shaw's case?

The acting, for the most part, is outstanding and the battle scenes are moving, exciting and full of stark realism, although the scene where a soldier's head disintegrates was a little hard to take.

Broderick tries his best, but somehow his youthful demeanor and the softness of his portrayal of Shaw deny his character as he is resoundingly drowned out by his strong fellow performers.

Morgan Freeman, as one of the black soldiers, turns in the dominant and award caliber performance for which he has already been recognized at the Golden Globe Awards Dinner.

Denzel Washington, also recognized by the Golden Globe Awards, as an intense and raging race rebel, is an exciting counterpart to Freeman's proud patriotic portrayal.

The colorful cinematography is top-notch and one of the main reasons the picture rates as one of the best recent releases.

We'll give this one 4.5 out of five stars, less than perfect because, though it is a good film, we feel even more could have been done with the subject matter.

Mom Likes To Cook

By Randee Rian

So delicious and irresistible! Your valentine will have to "give in to temptation" when he sees these rich creations.

Desserts, it seems were made for Valentine's Day. They're fancy, fussy, romantic, calorie-laden and can say so easily "I love you." Such nice memories will be thought of for a long time.

Rainbow Cheesecake Pizza

My dessert pizza has a rich cookie crust that is baked in a pizza pan.

The "sauce" is a fluffy cream cheese/whipped cream mixture topped with assorted fresh fruits and brushed with an apricot preserve glaze to give the finishing touch.

Fun, showy... and delicious!

2 (8 oz.) pkgs. cream cheese, softened

1/2 cup butter, softened

1 1/4 cup flour

1/4 tsp. salt

1/3 cup sugar

1 Tbls. lemon juice

1 cup whipping cream, to be whipped

Topping:

Assorted fresh fruit

1/4 cup apricot preserves

1 Tbls. water

Combine 1/2 pkg. cream cheese and butter, mixing until well blended. Add flour and salt; mix well. Form into ball; chill. On lightly floured surface, roll to 14-in. circle. Place in 12-in. pizza pan. Prick bottom and sides with fork. Bake at 425 degrees Fahrenheit for 12 to 15 minutes or until golden brown.

Combine remaining cream cheese, sugar and lemon juice, mixing until well blended. Whip cream and fold in carefully. Spoon onto crust and spread evenly. Arrange fruit in an even design, or place "however and wherever" on pizza. Brush with combined preserves and water. Chill well before serving. Cut into "pizza-style" slices.

Makes 8 to 10 servings.

Cherry Lemony Crunch

A new twist on a cherry dessert—bright red cherries cover a creamy lemon layer with a crunchy cookie crust, above and below. Good for making ahead and chilling.

I like to serve mine in an attractive glass goblet with a dollop of whipped cream and a maraschino cherry on top.

1 cup flour

1/2 cup firmly packed brown sugar

1/2 cup butter, softened

1/2 tsp. salt

1/2 tsp. cinnamon

1 tsp. vanilla

1 cup flaked coconut

1/2 cup quick-cooking rolled oats

1/2 cup chopped nuts

1 can (1 lb., 5 oz.) prepared cherry pie filling

Lemon Filling*

1 can (15 oz.) lemon peel, fresh

2 eggs

4 tsp. grated lemon peel, fresh

1/4 cup lemon juice

1/4 tsp. salt

In a large bowl, combine flour, brown sugar, butter, salt, cinnamon and vanilla. Mix at low speed until well blended. Stir in coconut, rolled oats and chopped nuts. Press 2 1/2 cups of crumb mixture in bottom of ungreased 12- x 8- or 9-inch square pan. Bake at 375 degrees Fahrenheit for 12 minutes. Spread with lemon filling. Top with cherry pie filling. Sprinkle with remaining crumb mixture. Bake at 375 degrees for 15 to 18 minutes until lightly browned. Chill thoroughly before serving. To serve: Scoop into pretty glass dessert dishes so to enjoy the red and lemon layers. Makes 8 to 10 servings.

*Lemon Filling: In small bowl, combine sweetened condensed milk, eggs, lemon peel, lemon juice and salt. Mix until well blended and slightly thickened.

Strawberry Mile-High Pie

A frozen delight!

The strawberries, egg whites and whipped cream make a high frozen souffle-type pie. Makes a good presentation when served—should bring in lots of compliments!

Crust:

1/2 C. butter

1/4 cup brown sugar

1 cup flour

Mix and bake on cookie sheet at 375 degrees Fahrenheit for 15 minutes. Crumble into a spring-form pan when cool. Reserve 1/2 of mixture for the topping.

Filling:

2 cups frozen strawberries

1/2 cup sugar

1 Tbls. lemon juice

2 egg whites

Combine these ingredients and beat with electric mixer for 20 minutes.

Pokes fun at Broadway

The Woodstock Opera House will be one of the first stops for the national tour of "Forbidden Broadway," which began in January. This acclaimed musical satire pokes fun at Broadway's favorite musicals, performers and personalities. The show opened in New York City in 1981 and has been delighting audiences ever since.

In the wacky world of "Forbidden Broadway," "Fiddler on the Roof's" Tevye tells why he became an actor in the song, "Ambition;" a long-in-the-tooth, not-so-little Orphan Annie reflects, "I'm Thirty Years Old, Tomorrow;" and Evita's concern is not for Argentina, but for all the actresses who want to portray her in the movie as she sings the heart-rending "Don't Cry For Me, Barbara Streisand."

Writer/composer/creator Gerard Alessandrini's genius is so abundant that his humor is accessible to everyone whether or not they are familiar with all the original plays. Behind the jokes and mischief is truly a sincere appreciation of musical theatre.

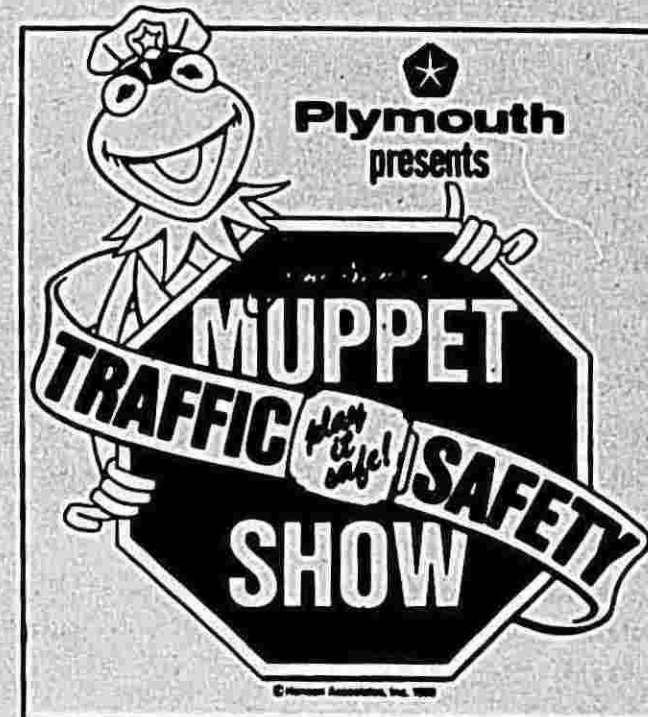

1 cup whipping cream

1/4 cup powdered sugar

1 tsp. vanilla

Combine cream, sugar and vanilla and beat (not too stiff). Fold into the egg white-strawberry mixture. Carefully place over crumbled crust in pan. Freeze till lightly firm after sprinkling with reserved topping.

To serve, remove from pan and cut into wedges. Garnish with fresh strawberries. Very pretty. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

77 percent of travel is done by automobile today

Travel set another record last year. It appears that a record 1.3 billion person trips, one person traveling 100 or more miles from home, were recorded.

Projected from the U.S. Travel Data National Survey, it is also noted automobiles continue to be the favorite form of transportation and account for 77 percent of all travel.

Road travel outpaced air for the second straight year. Trip frequency shows an eight percent increase with emphasis on weekend and long weekend preference. Three and four night trips are among the most popular and account for over eighty percent of the total.

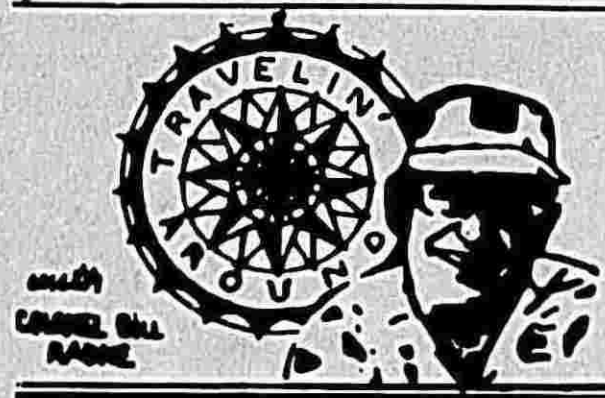

This indicates we are taking advantage of things nearby, and the Midwest has a giant leisure selection to be sampled.

In our own state, the conservation department offers a variety of park lodges in numbers never before available. All fit into the popular travel periods and driving habits, while offering outdoor opportunities.

As for flying habits, Illinois is seeing a remarkable return of the bald eagle. Much of the assistance has come through tax funds donated to save non-game wildlife.

This year, taxpayers may designate any amount for that purpose in Item 11A of State Income Tax Forms. It's just up to the individual how much he wants to help.

There are now between 7,000 and 12,000 bald eagles nationally with over 10 percent in Illinois. Some have taken to nesting here to raise their young. Recovery has been brought about by eliminating harmful pesticides and lead shot which poisoned feeding eagles and destroyed their eggs before chicks could hatch.

The harmful lead, shot from hunter's guns, tumbled into water, was consumed by fish and fowl which were then eaten by eagles, in turn, poisoning them.

Hunting is a national sport which figures into the lives of Americans. It has found its way into our language with such familiar sayings from shooting sport sources as "Way off target," "Surefire, Can't Miss," "Lock, Stock and Barrel," "Loaded for bear," "Hit or Miss" and others.

A new non-hunting term that keeps cropping up is "The Greenhouse Effect" and relates to global warming.

The cause is from use of fossil fuels. Largely, the question is, How can we get along without them? What can be substituted? Our future depends upon energy sources that do not pollute. The best candidate seems to be solar energy. The source is present every day of the year and never gets used up or winds up in a shortage caused by man's greed.

Cells called "photovoltaics" are the most promising source on our large-scale energy horizon. Recent improvements have brought them into the affordable area and they may soon become the least expensive among non-fossil fuels.

These massive units are capable of directing sun's rays into liquid fuels and from there into electrical energy. A procedure already in limited use.

Our decade will launch new efforts to clean air, water and land of contaminants that threaten our existence.

Folks that say "What's wrong with getting a little warmer?" are not really thinking of how it will change world growing and living habits over an extended period.

Sunshine-the same that raises our food energy-will soon be providing industrial energy from nature with no harmful waste products!

Valentine's Barn Dance starts stomping Feb. 10

The "Valentine's Barn Dance" is scheduled for 7:30 p.m., Saturday, Feb. 10, at the park district building, 42 S. Seymour in downtown Grayslake.

This is the fifth dance in the current series of traditional barn dances presented by the Grayslake Community Park Dist. the second Saturday of the month.

Barn dancing differs from modern "Mainstream" and "Plus" square dancing in that there is always live music and the dances are traditional. Costume is not important.

Years ago, before movies, radio, television and videos, on any Saturday night the sound of fiddles and people having a good old time square dancing could be heard coming out of barns and meeting halls throughout Lake County.

The Grayslake Park Dist. has now revived this old time fun with their barn dance series with live music by Ron Brown on fiddle and his wife Sandy on guitar. The old time dances are called by "UNCLE" Roy Reinholds.

They will play old time tunes that have been danced to by Americans of yesteryear at grange halls, old barns and big city lodge halls and ballrooms.

All age groups, with or without partners or square dancing experience are invited to attend the barn dance. When needed, the old time figures will be walked through before dancing. In addition, just before the dance at 7 p.m. free lessons will be held.

Come to the dance and enjoy a folk tradition that people of North America have enjoyed since the founding of this country. The admission is $3 a person. For more information call Uncle Roy at (708)223-2081.

Street Scenes opens

Carmel High School's annual production of Street Scenes will have 11 shows and 13 lounges open in classrooms starting at 6:30 p.m., on Friday and Saturday, Feb. 9 and 10. Adler sets new art class

The David Adler Cultural Center will offer a new class this session. Painting, utilizing waterbased mediums, will be devoted to the exploration of waterbased mediums including watercolor acrylics and others.

Lou Taylor, noted artist and teacher, will teach this class. Taylor's widespread success has hinged upon his versatility, philosophy and experience. He has a background of over 35 years of commercial art, illustration, design graphics and photography.

His samples include magazine covers, book illustrations, calendars, national and international advertising, sales slides, film presentations, motion pictures, brochures and general collateral materials.

THE LAST WORD IN SAVINGS

Dungeons in the Bahamas?

by JIM WARNKEN, PRESIDENT
NORTH STAR TRAVEL, INC.

It doesn't happen too often in Nassau, but you can occasionally experience a rainy day. It's then that we must look for activities that don't involve sun and sand. A visit to Fort Charlotte, a few minutes from downtown, may be just the ticket.

Built in 1789, this English fort boasts a real 18th century dungeon complete with stretching racks and other instruments of "interrogation."

A guide will meet you at the gate for your tour. The cost fit my budget perfectly, as it was free! A tip is appreciated, though.

The underground passages and dungeon were hewn by slaves out of solid rock and took over two years to complete. It is everything you would expect in a dungeon. It's dark, damp and even supplied with dummies for prisoners and interrogators.

The rest of the fort is quite interesting, also. From the ramparts you get an excellent view of the harbor which it was built to guard. It's cannons could fire up to two miles out to sea.

The dry moat surrounding the fort was not filled with water, but rather corn bush. A bridge once led to the powder magazine, which was kept separate in case of explosion.

There is even some 19th century graffiti on the fort's walls. One artist even signed his picture of a ship.

For the energetic, Fort Charlotte is only a 15-minute walk from downtown Nassau. Otherwise, most cab drivers will take you there and wait for you to complete your tour.

A couple of other nearby forts include Fort Fincastle on Bennet's Hill to protect the town of Nassau. On the other end of the harbor is Fort Montagu, the only one to see action.

Sequoits hope to spoil fun for league leaders

Walking into Antioch Community High School's gym on Saturday, one could see a lot of orange and red.

Some Sequoit fans wore t-shirts claiming that Antioch hoops were "red."

But Libertyville in general and Shawn Stanek in particular had other ideas for the North Suburban Conference contest.

Stanek, enjoying his second best effort of the season, scored 16 first half points but did not stop there, finishing with 30 points in a 76-61 romp for the Wildcats.

A double-win weekend in the NSC gave the 'Cats a 15-3 overall mark, 10-2 in the NSC. Antioch went the other extreme, losing two games to slip to 6-13 overall, 7 in the NSC.

Stanek, at 5-8, sometimes is the butt of opposing fans' insults such as "shorty" and worse. But the senior doesn't mind that, and when he sank a fourth quarter free-throw, he gave an "I told you so" finger pointing to a boisterous Antioch fan.

Stanek was also at the top of his game on defense, with several first half steals which left the Antioch guards wondering how he did it.

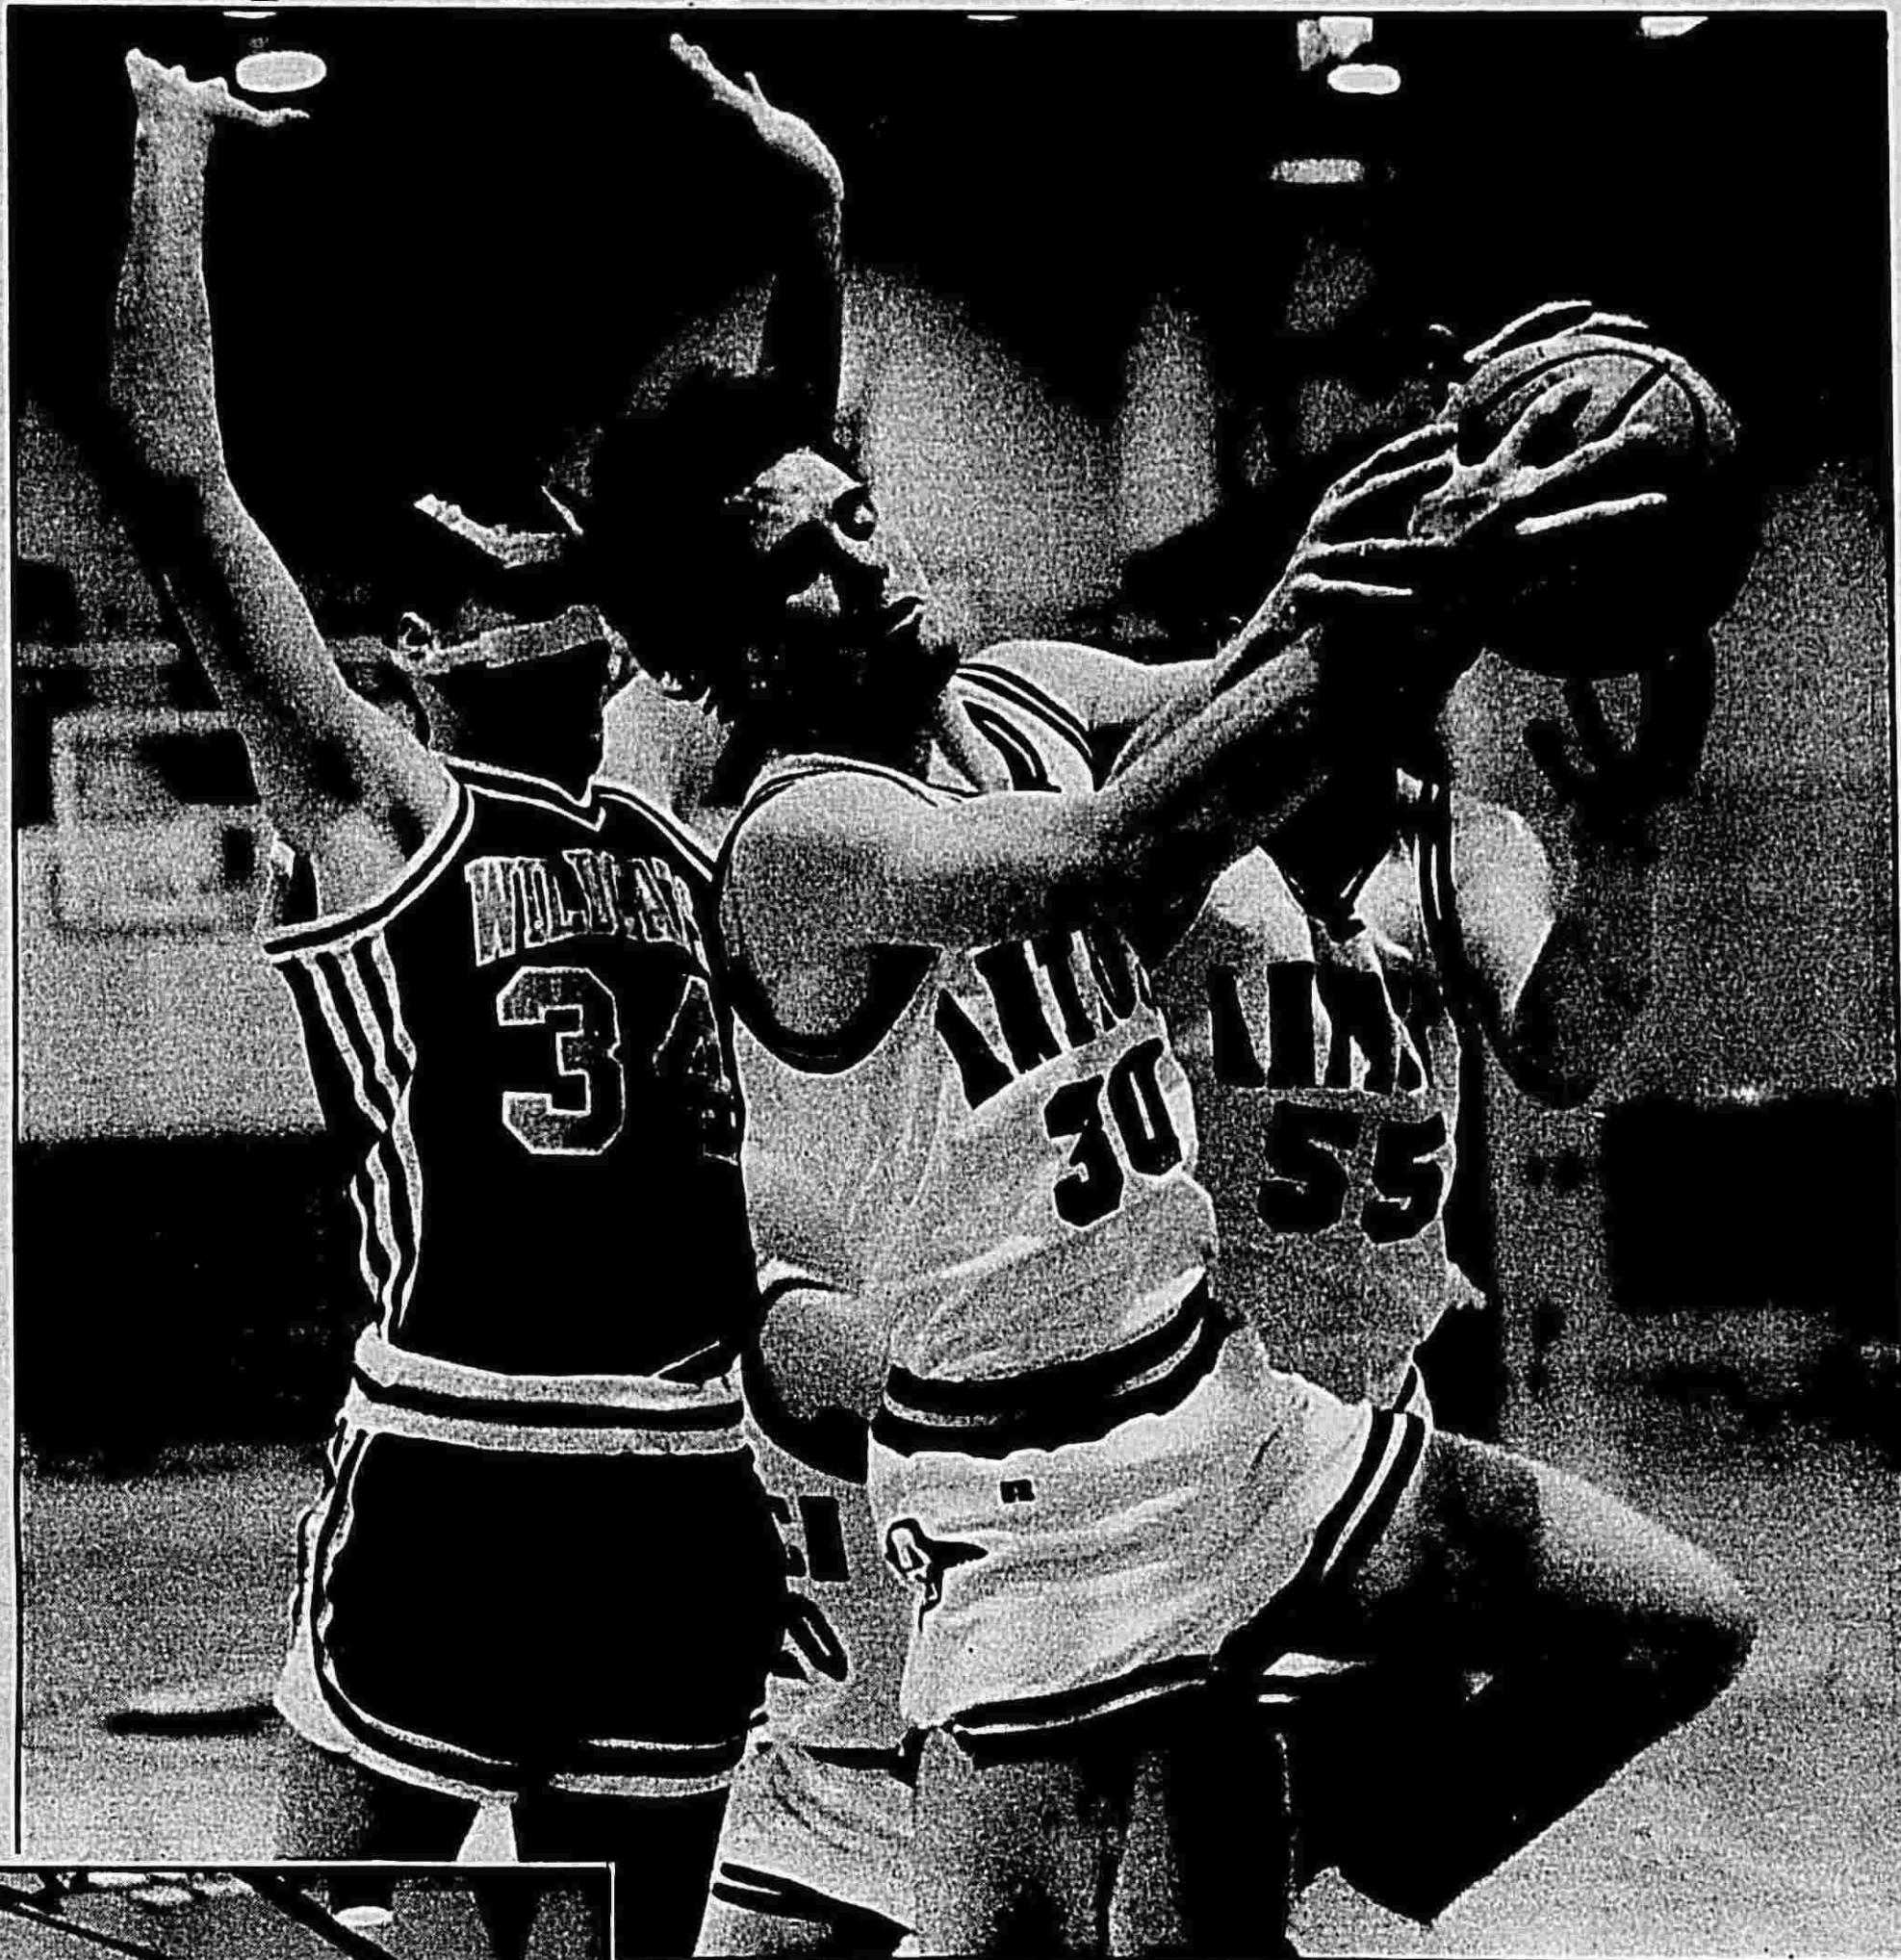

"I try and keep turning them until they make a mistake," Stanek said of his defensive abilities.

"He's a smart ballplayer," Antioch Coach Jeff Dresser said.

Libertyville silenced the red-dressed Antioch crowd - those who wore red were admitted free-of-charge, by making six of its first nine field goal tries to build a 12-6 lead. The lead reached 20-6 after a steal and layup by Stanek.

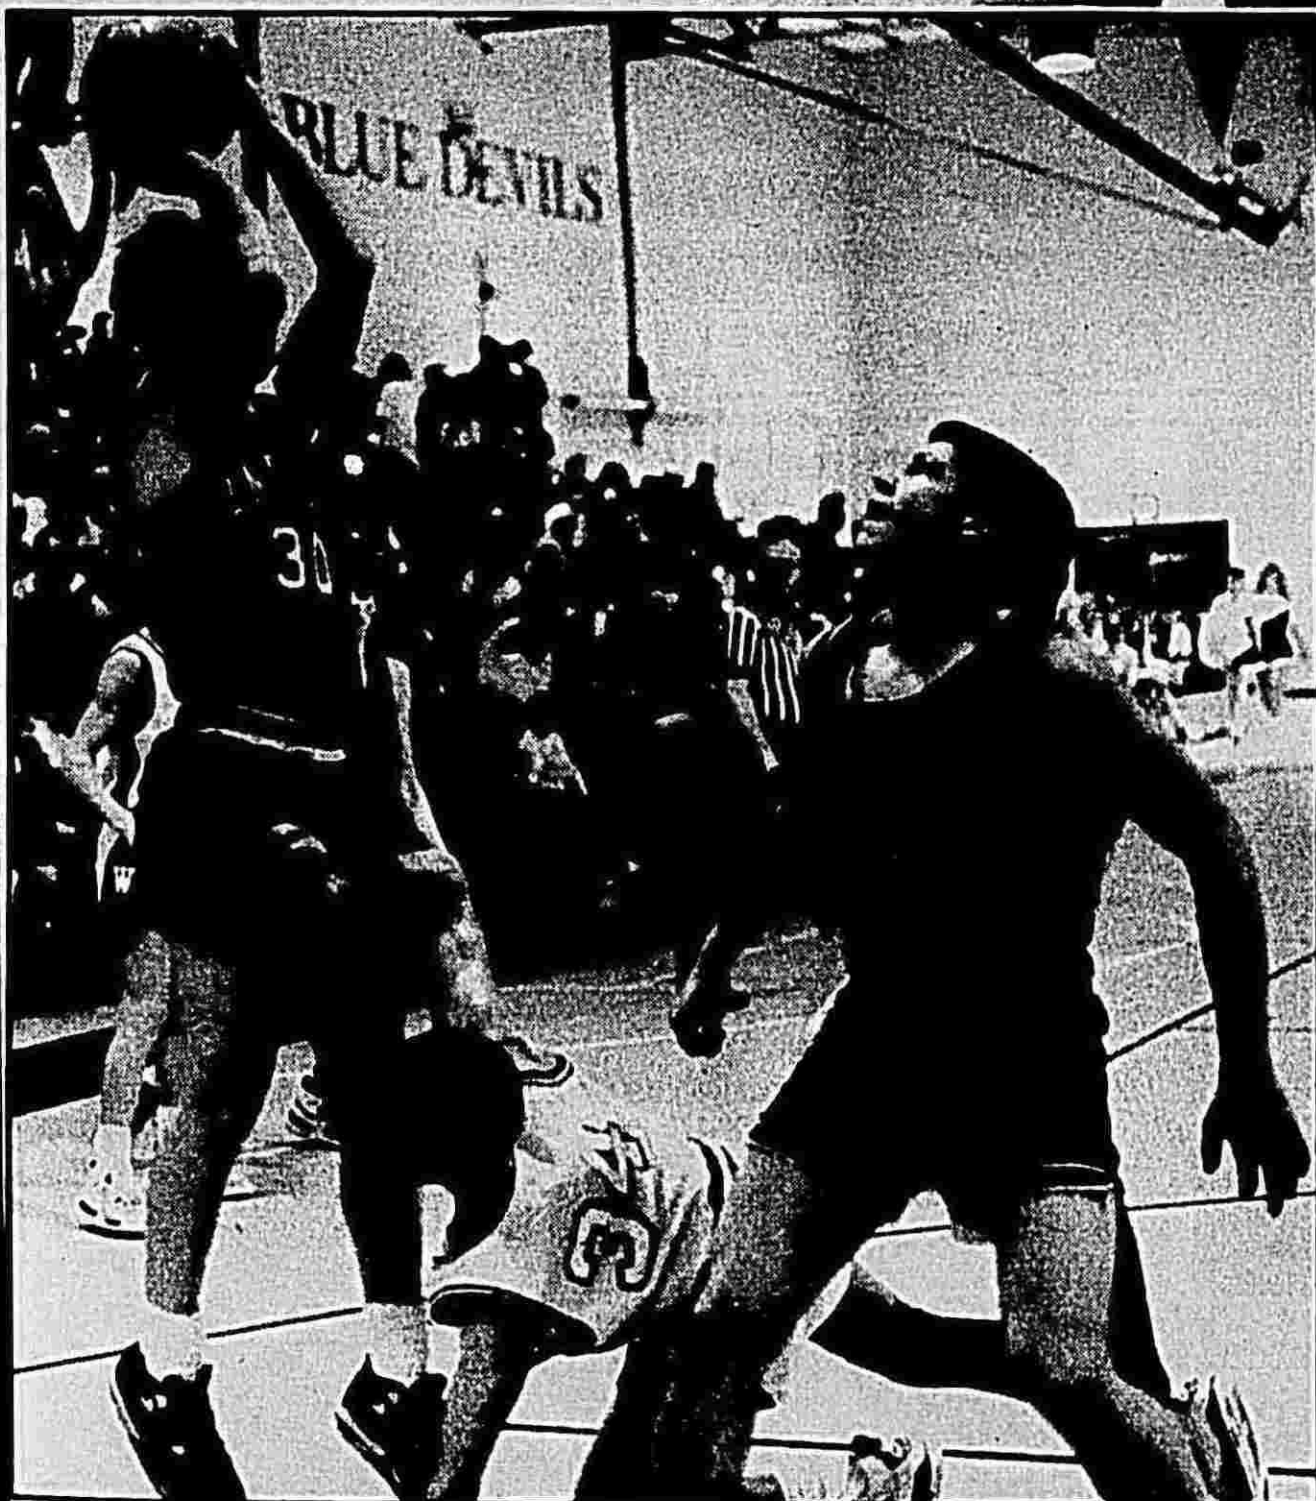

Ahead 26-10 at halftime, Libertyville increased the lead to 30-13 on two Stanek free throws early in the third quarter.

Although a generally impressive performance, there was a buga-boo about the third quarter. Antioch made the Wildcats sweat a little, coming to within 10 points on two occasions.

Antioch girls looking for regional momentum

Antioch's girls basketball team was looking to head into the Round Lake regional on a bright note when the final week of the regular season began.

Antioch fell 55-43 at Mundelein Saturday as Ashley Struggles and Cindy Shark combined to do the Sequoits in. Struggles had 28 points and Shark 13 for the winners.

Poor shooting in the first and third quarters did not help Coach Al Tamburrino's team. The Sequoits were four-for-23 in those sessions.

"We just didn't score and they got a few fastbreaks," Tamburrino said.

Antioch was led in scoring by Liz Johnson's 14 points while Jenny Hagen added 13.

Mundelein, 14-7, 11-4, benefited from a 16-5 run to start the game and a 14-5 advantage in the third quarter.

Elsewhere in the NSC, Warren Coach Bruce Campbell set out some goals for his team.

"We wanted to win the Thanksgiving tournament, (they did). Win the Christmas tournament (they did). Win the conference and do well in regionals," Campbell said.

Consider three of the four goals accomplished.

The Blue Devils wrapped up their second North Suburban Conference title in three years with a whopping 50-19 win at Stevenson Saturday. The win gave the Blue Devils a perfect 15-0 in the NSC.

"It feels great. We played great defense," Campbell said.

Now, Warren must set its sights on the regional tournament at Waukegan West. They play improving Zion-Benton in the first game Feb. 5. The Blue Devils easily handled the Zee-Bees in the first round, but Zion has defeated Stevenson and North Chicago to jump in the running for a first-division NSC finish.

The Blue Devils held the Patriots to under 10 points until the reserves were sent in early in the fourth quarter.

Highlighting the defensive performance was four blocked shots by Monica Brandt in the first half.

"She averages five or six a game. Unless you lean back, she will block it," Campbell, whose team improved to 21-0, said.

Painter finishes second, CLC looks to improve

"We're a little behind where we were last year. We're moving along but we have to cut down on our mistakes," College of Lake County wrestling Coach Stan Paslewicz said.

The Lancers finished with 29.5 points at Harper's tournament in Palatine.

The highlight of the tournament for CLC came when 150 pounder Kelly Painter garnered second place honors. "He did real well. He was ahead and got caught in a throw," Paslewicz said.

Painter, a Waukegan West graduate, was 6-2 after the win.

Round Lake graduate Jerry Chapman was second at 134 pounds. It was the second second-place finish for Chapman, who was also runner-up at Cathage College Invitational.

Dan Metzger at 190 pounds finished third. He was fourth at Cathage.

Earning fourth place finishes for CLC were John

Van Enige at 126 pounds, John Rabine at 177 pounds and Joe Belcher at heavyweight. Chapman and Rabine won by decisions in the third round while Belcher pinned his opponent.

CLC, which was at Triton Jan. 19, split its first six dual meet matches this winter.

CLC bested Madison Area Technical College 49-6. Rabine won by decision and Chapman by technical fall.

CLC fell to Elsworth, Iowa 50-5. Rabine earned CLC's lone win.

In a close match, CLC dropped a Skyway Conference decision to Waubesa 26-21.

EYE CARE

News, Views & Questions About Your Eyes

By
Robert L. Epstein, M.D., Director
Illinois Center for Corrective Eye Surgery

QUESTION: What can you tell me about eyelid surgery?

ANSWER: People who have surgery on their eyelids and tissues surrounding the eye do so for both health and appearance related reasons.

Due to the effects of aging or perhaps birth defects, the eyelids of many people appear to be "baggy" or to droop. For some people this condition may actually cause vision problems.

Other people have eyelid and eyebrow surgery to correct scars or damage caused by injuries or birth defects, to remove eyelid tumors, to assure the fit of an artificial eye or to accommodate changes in the shape of the eye and eyelid due to conditions such as thyroid disease. People considering surgery on eyelids, eyebrows and on tissues near the eye should first consult with an ophthalmic plastic surgeon.

Regional next challenge for Panther grapplers and Lake's wrestling will be hoping some cooking coupled with momentum gained at the Northwest Suburban Conference meet will propel to a strong regional finish.

Each Bob Curran of the top-ranked Panthers, though, respects the position - including Lake County schools Waukegan and West, and area schools Grant, Antioch, and Grayslake, that is not counting any others yet.

The Panthers racked up first place finishes at the NWSC meet last week at Grant en route to 205.5 points. Johnsburg, riding the strength of several third-place finishes, was second at 171 and the Rams edged Grant 125-118 for third place.

"This year we have seniors on the team and they provide leadership and we have a good work ethic," Curran, who won the first out-right title for the Panthers, said.

After Johnsburg and Grayslake won the first two classes, the Round Lake squad took over beginning with Jason Gilley at 119 pounds. Gilley pinned Eddie Lopez of Marian Central in 1:46.

Dave Minjares also won by pin, in 2:26 over Grant's Randy Melson at 125 pounds.

Brian Rainer won at 135, earning a 10-4 decision over Dave Mendlik of Johnsburg.

The Skyhawks' performance pleased Coach Jim Briscoe.

"I think we're ready for regionals," Briscoe said after the second-place showing.

Johnsburg joins the Fox Valley Conference schools at McHenry Feb. 3.

The Skyhawks' mentor

said his young team has been improving all year. Chris Setzler, one of the few seniors on the team, edged Mile Pratt of Round Lake 2-0 at 135 pounds.

"Chris only has three losses on the season and they were to the second, third and fourth ranked wrestlers in the state," Briscoe said.

Matches between Pratt and Setzler are always close and low scoring, according to the Johnsburg coach.

The JHS other first came from sophomore Scott Maleck at 140 pounds, who shutout Marian Central's Shannon Dean 7-0.

Of the 11 Johnsburg wrestlers who placed, six earned third-place finishes. The group included: Jim Edwards at 103 pounds, Duane Schwabauer at 125, Pat Sperry at 145, Rob Torres at 152, Ron Leukenheimer at 160 and Chris Jankowski at 171 pounds.

Briscoe was optimistic about his team's chances. "I think we will throw a few curveballs at the Fox Valley schools," he said.

Grayslake's third-place finish was paced by champions Mike Kearby at 103 pounds, and Ryan Geist at 140 pounds. Zach Spencer was fourth at 125 pounds. Curt Onstad earned a third-place at 112 and Mike Smith was third at 135.

For host Grant, Bryan Fritsyak lost in the title bout to Lake Zurich's Bill Metes 9-0.

St. Gilbert School wins school spirit accolades

Two Palatine schools finished for the first Mid-Season Girls Basketball Tournament sponsored by the Knights of Columbus Chapter 9689.

All Lake County teams who remained alive in the first round had been eliminated Friday.

St. Theresa downed St. Thomas 32-18 for the title. In the consolation game, St. Emily beat St. Peter and Paul 24-20.

In final four action, St. Theresa advanced to the title game with a 32-18 win over St. Emily's while St. Thomas of Villanova won a defensive struggle against St. Peter and Paul of Cary 18-14.

Because of a judging error in the boys tournament in December, St. Gilbert was awarded a co-Keith Ryan School Spirit Award. Also, the Knights presented Warren Twp.'s Kim Hanson with a check for $3,000 from the Knights' candy drive.

The winners of the free-throw shooting competition were named by district.

In district one for boys, Kevin Chudd, Craig Curtis and Mike Denzel, all of Antioch, won the 10, 11 and 12-year old divisions, respectively.

Jose Diaz and Justin Buckenberger of Round Lake won the 13 and 14-year old divisions.

For girls, Amy Rodriguez and Tina Meyer of Antioch along with Bridgette Chiliki of Lake Villa advanced.

Carmel not taking Holy Cross lightly: Rosberg

Although one may look at the records of Carmel and Holy Cross and expect a laugh Feb. 2, that's not the way Carmel Coach Scott Rosberg is looking at the East Suburban Catholic Conference contest.

"We're not taking Holy Cross lightly," Rosberg said.

Holy Cross is at the bottom of the ESCC standings at 0-9 and has just two wins in 19 games. Carmel is 3-6 in the ESCC, an even 9-9 overall.

The Corsairs, suffered through a poor start against powerful Marist in a 67-60 loss.

Carmel trailed 18-8 after one and while the Corsairs were competitive in the second quarter and won the third, the lead held up for the Redskins.

Libertyville rules NSC wrestling, regional next

Advancing 11 wrestlers to the finals, Libertyville came away as expected the champion in the North Suburban Conference meet.

The Wildcats finished with 201.5 points, topping Fenton's 158.5. Stevenson at 118 and Antioch at 102 rounded out the top four finishers.

The biggest surprise for the Wildcats, Coach Dale Eggert said, was Jason Nardini's second-place showing at 140 pounds. Nardini had entered the meet as an unseeded wrestler. He lost to Warren's Brett Jackson in the final.

"That was a big lift for us. He hung in there against Jackson," Eggert said.

Champs for Libertyville included Mike Baumann at 119 pounds and Brian Fischer at 152 pounds and Karim Khatib of Libertyville at 125 pounds. Doug Pelletier decisioned Chris Chang of Stevenson 4-1.

A second-place finisher was Brett Fahrner at 130 pounds.

"Last year the conference tournament gave us a big boost into the state tournament," Eggert said.

The title marked the fifth straight year Libertyville has had some say in who wins the crown.

Libertyville, which advanced to the Elite Eight last year, is at Lake Forest Feb. 3 for the regional meet which features Carmel, a second-place finisher in the East Suburban Catholic Conference meet.

The NSC tourney was somewhat of a disappointment for Antioch - at least the first day was.

"We took too long to get going," Antioch Coach Ted DeRousse said.

One of Antioch's highlights came when unseeded John Stedl earned a third-place finish at 152 pounds.

Wildcats stay on top

Libertyville recorded two more North Suburban Conference victories last weekend to stay atop the top five rankings.

The rankings as the basketball season heads into February:

1. Libertyville: the Wildcats (9-2, 15-3) open the weekend with a 54-43 win over last-place Zion-Benton but then get the offense in high gear with a 76-61 win over Antioch. Shawn Stanek starred in the Antioch game, scoring 30 points, 16 at halftime. Next: Libertyville hosts Warren Feb. 2.

2. Richmond-Burton (9-1, 18-1): a wide margin gave the Rockets revenge against Harvard, 78-59. Next: host Huntley Feb. 2.

3. Round Lake: Panthers (5-2, 13-3) slip past Grayslake 63-61 on a Garrett Horn free throw with 28 seconds left. Mike Bragg helps injury riddled team with 14 points. Next: at Wauconda Feb. 2.

4. Stevenson: the Patriots (7-4, 11-7) gained a split with a 70-55 win over North Chicago. Chris Coleman led with 19 points in the win. Next: at Fenton Feb. 2.

5. Warren: the Blue Devils make their debut in the rankings after a split for the weekend earned them a 10-8 overall record, 5-6 in the NSC. Warren's patent defense stopped Antioch cold 70-42 and kept the 'Devils in the game at Fenton, before losing 48-47. Next: at Libertyville Feb. 2, host Lake Forest Feb. 3 in tango with the NSC co-leaders.

Lizard hosts hunt or pesky creature

LIZ SCHMEHL
(8)395-5380
When I was in the process cleaning house on Tuesday, in preparation for our weekly yearbook meeting, I discovered I had a visitor. I noticed a little mouse—

Sorry I missed you; I'll try to do better next year. Just remember, a call to this paper from your "loved" ones would have gotten you in on time!

What now? A bat!

The mouse incident

Hometown Goodies

Actually it was a mole—had made its way in out of the ground. He scampered here and there, till he finally took refuge behind my stove.

Once I realized he only had one way out, we set the house trap close by. I secretly wished I could figure out how to get him to go outside again so he wouldn't meet his doom in the trap.

Later that evening, when Julie Groh, Debbie Mozal,
Pat Santiemmo, Linda Boerman, Marie Brausam
and Cathy LaVallee arrived, I informed them of his presence. Naturally, they were all "delighted" to hear this creature was loose in the house.

I assured them they had no reason to worry, as he surely would stay put till after they had gone. However, the Lizard was wrong, as usual.

Suddenly, he made his appearance—scurrying here and there. I heard Julie mention something about a mouse phobia as she kept her feet high. It turned out that we had nothing to fear as the "great white hunter," Pat Santiemmo, came to our rescue. She cornered
"Mickey" in the kitchen, scooped him up in a big red bowl, and released him outdoors. Thanks, Pat, for saving the day and the little mouse. Did you ever think of going on an African safari? I can see you out in the jungle, all decked out for hunting and armed with a big red bowl. Yes, "People Are funny!"

Happy birthday

Ahh, another week, another column. This column also starts off another month in the new year. I think it is appropriate to begin this week's column by wishing an awful lot of terrific people a "Happy February Birthday." When your special day rolls around this month, I hope you all have a great time. Happy birthday to Matt Schultz, Missy Olenick, Patrick
Smerz, Chris Nicolay, Debbie Galdine, Matt Friel, Charlie Miller, Charlie
Spencer, Crystal O'Brien,
Jenny Mosier, Jerry Olesky and Lindsey Teaters. Hope I didn't miss anyone. If I did, give me a call and I'll give you mention in a future column.

I have two belated January birthday wishes to extend.
Happy belated Jan. 22
birthday to Walter Mozal, and happy belated Jan. 23 birthday to Elaine Lasky.

prompted Linda Boerman to relate a story concerning the Robert Olenick family. A while back, a bat invaded their home and they could not catch it. As it was quite late, they decided to take refuge in one particular bedroom for the night and call someone the next day to remove the bat.

They naturally closed the bedroom door so they would not be joined by the bat in the middle of the night. It turned out the bat was quicker than the eye, because the next morning they discovered they were not alone in the room. As luck would have it, Bob, Darlene, Tricia, Deanna and Missy were roommates with Mr. Bat!

All Stars perform

The kids at Grass Lake School have a special treat in store for them. The Antioch Chapter of AARP
All Stars Band will be entertaining the students and staff in the Grass Lake School gym at 2 p.m. on Monday, Feb. 19.

What a wonderful way to expose the students to some of the history of our hometown. Equally as important what nice way to show our senior population we are behind their endeavors.

Some members of the All Stars attended Grass Lake School when it was a one-room school house. All the history in our area is only one more reason why the Lizard loves living in this
"hometown."

Women's Aglow

The Antioch Chapter
Women's Aglow is happy to announce the "Aglow Spring Retreat." The retreat will be at the Woodfield

"Scapino" at PM&L

Hey, theater goers, don't forget "Scapino" is now on stage at the PM&L Theatre in Antioch. Seating is limited, so reservations are advised. Tickets are $6 for adults and $5 for seniors and students. The number to call for reservations or further information is (708)395-3055.

There is a performance

Friday, Feb. 2, and Saturday, Feb. 3, at 8 p.m. Future performances are Feb.
9, 10, 16 and 17 at 8 p.m.
and at 2:30 p.m. Feb. 11
and 18.

"Scapino" is a comedy farce and is sure to delight audiences of all ages. Hey, Elaine Lasky, what are you doing on Friday, Feb. 18?

Etc., etc., etc.

Hey, David Mozal, Fred
and Ethel, your clown friends, from the "Growing Up Well" program at Grass Lake School were very sad to learn of your injury. On the other hand, they are very happy to hear you are all "fixed up" again. Fred and Ethel would also like you to say hello to all of their other third-grade buddies for them.

Some people will do anything to make this column. Such is the case with Mike Chinn and Maria Bruha. However, Mike and Maria, you did not have to go to the extreme of entering the hospital. I understand you are both out of the hospital and home recuperating, and I suppose reading this "wonderful" column. Glad to hear you are doing okay. Take care, and next time simply call me with a tidbit or two and,
I promise, I will put it in—no need to rush off to a hospital to be recognized.

I am beginning to realize,
more and more, that Cathy Morenz was born under a lucky star. It seems that whenever Cathy enters a raffle, she ends up winning.
Her latest win will result in Cathy relaxing in the sun
for one week in Hawaii.
Congratulations, Cathy,
from now on I will have you purchase my lottery
tickets for me.

News flash: I understand
the "Great White Hunter," Pat Santiemmo, was on the job again. This time, at Camp Crayon in Antioch on Thursday. However, this time she hunted down a "block" one of the little students had dropped into
"Miss Marie's" boot. When Marie put her foot in the boot and felt something, she jumped to the conclusion that it was a mouse and quickly turned over the situation to the "Hunter."
After a lot of nervous confusion, they finally discovered the so-called mouse was a building block. What a way to go, ladies!

Well, snowmobilers, did you enjoy last Thursday's snow storm? I know the junior high students of Grass Lake School were glad to see it arrive, as they had a ski trip scheduled for Friday, Jan. 26, to Alpine Ski Resort. I'll see if I can round up any tidbits concerning the trip for next week's column.

Till then, take care and please treat others with kindness—especially as you remember to call me with your tidbits and "Ask for the Lizard!"

previous day and mentioned how expensive drywall tools are. Bloom also said he ate his lunch in his truck at the corner of Savage Rd. and Grass Lake Rd.
on the day the alleged burglary occurred and saw the two men heading eastbound on Grass Lake Rd.

Upon returning to the subdivision to continue the job, Bloom said he saw the men leave the area and waved, but they did not acknowledge him.

At 3 a.m. on Wednesday, Jan. 24,
Bloom reportedly received a call from McGinnis during which McGinnis asked him why he'd call the police on a friend.
He also said the incident was a joke, but after the police called to speak with him, he became scared and threw all the tools in a culvert on the north side of Wilmot Rd.
at a location just south of Rte. 173.

Bloom went to McGinnis' house at 7 a.m. that morning to retrieve his belongings and found them in the backyard. At 11 a.m. the same day, McGinnis called Lindenhurst Lt. Art Preder to say the tools were returned and he'd like to resolve the situation over the phone. Preder advised him to come with Miller to the station on Thursday, Jan. 25

at noon.

When the men neglected to show up,
Jones went to Waukegan Circuit Judge William Homer for a warrant. Homer signed a warrant for the arrest of the two men and set bond at $30,000 each.

McGinnis called the Lindenhurst Police at 1:10 p.m. that day to say he and Miller would turn themselves in at 9 a.m.
Monday.

McGinnis and Miller did appear at the Lindenhurst Police Station Monday morning with their attorney. After being processed in Lindenhurst, they were transported to bond court in Waukegan where they were released on the recognizance bonds and given a preliminary hearing date of Feb. 15 at 10 a.m. in Waukegan.

Grant, Antioch girls aim for regional final Round Lake is the favorite going into their own regional tournament for girls basketball.

The regional opens Feb. 5 with Round Lake facing Grayslake and Antioch taking on Grant in the second contest.

The league-champion Panthers who clinched the title against Grant last week, were 19-2 before a game against Grayslake Tuesday, are led by Cyndie Donner. But other Panthers are beginning to leave their impressions on opposing coaches as well.

"I was real impressed with Bostic," Grant Coach John Schad said, referring to Charlene Bostic.

While Grayslake will be trying to knock off the top-seeded Panthers, Antioch and Grant game could prove to be a struggle.

Antioch is 10-12 while the Bulldogs are 10-11 heading into the final week of the season.

Grant is coming off wins over Marengo and Grayslake.

Debbie Selle, Tami Fischer and Amy Nelson all scored 10 points against the Indians.

Makes squad

Chris Tavajian, a junior, is one of 12 Dakota Wesleyan University in Mitchell, South Dakota men's basketball cheerleaders chosen for the 1989-90 school year. He is the son of Jack Tavajian of Wildwood and Kathy Tavajian of Grayslake.

Nelson led the Bulldogs against Marengo Grayslake with 20 points in a 53-48 win.

"It was a great team effort by the girls. Grayslake out-scraped us in the beginning of the game, but our girls knew what they had to do," Schad said.

The Grayslake game marked the last home game for Nelson, Jenny Loring and Denise Barr.

Loring had 11 points.

After Grayslake dominated early, the Bulldogs rallied to a 27-27 tie with 1:56 left in the third quarter.

Antioch, meanwhile, is coming off a 55-43 loss to Mundelein. Poor shooting in the first and third quarters did the Sequoits in.

"Grant is a good team. They were down against Grayslake but came back," Antioch Coach Al Tamburrino said.

Schad said his team will have to have a solid game to beat Sequoits, who are led by Liz Johnson's 14 points a game. Jenny Hagen, Sue Ozga and Terri Farnsworth all average about seven points a game.

The winner of the Round Lake regional will be determined Feb. 8 at 7 p.m. The winner will advance to the Antioch sectional with the Belvidere supersectional next.

Congressional church celebrates birthday

By STEVE PETERSON
Lakeland Newspapers

Some 18 months in the making, the Millburn Congregational United Church of Christ is in the midst of a year-long celebration of the church's 150th year.

"There is a lot of excitement involved in this," Rev. Paul Meltzer said.

Meltzer explained the church, located at the 45 and Grass Lake Rd. in Millburn, was founded by Scottish settlers.

According to a church publication published after 140 years, the first hundred years, the settlers learned from their friends and from the glowing advertisements found on printed dodgers passed from hand to hand what the new world beyond the horizon promised. "There was a whole continent. There was something to gain. Freedom! Opportunity! Life!" the ads said.

Those advertisements must have been effective because in 1838 and 1839 there were log cabins in the area of northern Lake County.

Meltzer is the 32d pastor of the church, founded in 1840, having started his present position in 1987. It has been remodeled three times and rebuilt once after an 1835 fire. Names such as Rev. Flavel Bacom, the founding missionary; Rev. E.G. Howe, Rev. William Bradford Dodge, Rev. Thomas Lightbody, Rev. E.B. Payne, Rev. James Campbell, Rev. S.G. Arnett, Rev. Victor Clark, and more were some of the early ministers.

Church membership was based on the acceptance of a "Covenant", the fundamental religious document of every Congregational Church.

Many families, such as the Demnans, Smiths and others have been associated with the church almost since the start.

Feb. 3 will mark the 139th anniversary that James Bonner and his wife, bearing letters from Scotland, were received to the full communion and fellowship of the church. David Bonner is business manager at Grayslake Community High School.

St. Peter School Board has two seats open

On April 30, two St. Peter School Board Members Debbie Thelen and Bruce Pagni, will have completed their terms. St. Peter Parish consequently will vote for their replacements. To provide for a smooth transition in selecting their replacements, the school board has developed and adopted the following procedures for nominating, qualifying, and electing members of the parish school board. Terms are for a period of three years. Members may serve a maximum of two elected terms.

The election committee will be appointed annually by the school board chairman: to include ex-officio members of the board and board members.

The election will be held on April 22.

Voting will take place after each mass (including the 5:30 p.m. mass on April 21.) All adult parishioners or parents of St. Peter School children are eligible to vote. Parish rolls will be used to determine voter eligibility. Election committee will be responsible to appoint election judges.

A simple majority will be sufficient to elect a member. In the event of a tie, a runoff election will be held on the following Sunday. Results of any runoff election will be announced on the Sunday after the runoff.

Election results will be published and announced on Sunday, April 29.

Elected members will be seated at the first regularly scheduled meeting after the election, i.e., in May.

Ballots will be made available in Fr. Frawley Hall after each mass.

Prospective members must qualify according to the school board requirements reside in the community for at least six months; be a parish member or parent of St. Peter School child; must be a minimum of 18 years old. No person employed by the school may serve on the board.

Candidates for board membership must submit their application-petition signed by at least 10 parishioners or parents of St. Peter School children, to the principal, no later than 3 p.m. Tuesday, March 6.

Application-petition forms will be available at the school office beginning Feb. 1. Names will appear on the ballot in the order petitions are filed.

The election committee will be responsible for certification of all applicants. Election committee will accept all application-petitions. Election committee will determine eligibility and acceptance of candidates to the school board.

Announcement of qualifying candidates will be made at the regular school board meeting of March 8.

In the event a candidate does not qualify, he/she will be advised of the decision as well as the reason for his/her failure to obtain certification prior to March 8.

Any candidate will have the opportunity to question the election committee should he/she fail to obtain certification and present his/her case in the favor of certification prior to March 8. The election committee will be dissolved after completion of election.

Preparing for service

Loy Boncek practices at the organ as Millburn Congregational United Church Pastor Rev. Paul Meltzer looks on. Boncek is a Lindenhurst resident. Church is celebrating its 150th anniversary. A service for all couples married in the church will be held Feb. 11.

Libertyville's Humphrey will attend Nebraska

A Libertyville football player will be hoping to dominate Big Eight Conference offensive lineman the same way he created havoc for opposing North Suburban Conference linemen.

Bill Humphrey has verbally committed to attend Nebraska University this fall. Formal signing of a letter of intent is expected Feb. 14.

"He decided a week ago Sunday after talking to Osborne (Tom) and McBride (Chuck)," Libertyville Coach Dale Christensen said.

Humphrey, 6-3, 225, is expected to play defensive lineman for the Cornhuskers. Although not expecting to play in his freshman year, Christensen said Humphrey could make an impact with the football powerhouse.

Humphrey played both offensive and defensive line for the Wildcats, who shared the North Suburban Conference title with Stevenson at 7-2.

"We noticed his ability right away," Christensen said. Humphrey moved to Libertyville in his sophomore season.

"He was really quick and had a nose for the football," Christensen said.

Humphrey, in addition to his tackle duties, also played tight end for the Wildcats.

Road fatalities decline in 1989

Secretary of State Jim Edgar hailed a 7.5 percent decline in highway fatalities last year as capping a remarkable decade of progress in which nearly 1,000 fewer people died on Illinois roads than in the 1970s.

"Our crackdown on drunk driving — combined with increased education to change bad driving habits, vigilant law enforcement, seat-belt programs, road improvements and truck safety initiatives — have paid big dividends in highway safety," Edgar said. "Despite an increase in miles traveled, we saw a 22 percent decrease in traffic fatalities during the decade of the '80s," he added. "We still have too many tragedies on our roads, but we have just experienced a remarkable decade of progress."

Statistics compiled by the Illinois Dept. of Transportation show 17,061 highway fatalities during the 1980s, compared with 21,917 during the previous decade. The reduction came despite a 25 percent jump in miles driven on Illinois roads.

According to preliminary data, there were 1,708 traffic fatalities during 1989, a 7.5 percent drop from the 1,847 deaths recorded during 1988.

"Alcohol remains the major cause of highway deaths, but its role has been significantly reduced," Edgar said. "In 1980, Illinois had one of the worst drunk driving laws in the nation. Now it has one of the best. Enforcement, tougher penalties and greater public awareness are all saving lives."

There were 203 fewer alcohol-related deaths in highway accidents during 1989 than there were in 1988. "That's a dramatic decline of 25 percent, and I think we can do even better," Edgar said.

Edgar said indications of progress are even more striking using the most objective measure of highway safety, the number of fatalities per 100 million miles of travel. That number fell from 3.2 deaths per hundred million miles in 1979 to a 1989 rate of 2.2.

Nationwide there were 2.5 fatal accidents per hundred million miles in 1988. Figures for 1989 were unavailable.

SWCD to elect officers Feb. 15

The annual meeting and elections for the Lake County Soil and Water Conservation Dist. (SWCD) will be held Feb. 15 at Bauer's Red Rose at Renwood in Round Lake Beach. Preceding the meeting will be a buffet beginning at 7 p.m.

The election of officers will begin around 7:45 p.m., according to Doris Weidner, chairwoman of the district. She indicates "the district was established by state law. The SWCD is a public body which addresses natural resource concerns throughout the county. The district does not have taxing power. Director responsibilities include program development addressing land protection, erosion control, flood control, drainage and natural resource planning. Services and programs are voluntary and free unless mandated by law."

The current board of directors includes Doris Weidner, Homer White, Walter Dalitsch, Jerry Henningfeld and Bill Eiserman. Weidner, White and Dalitsch's terms expire this year. The election will fill their positions for two-year terms.

Those wishing to vote in the election need not attend the dinner. Cost of the buffet is $10.

Election and ticket information can be obtained by calling the district office at (708)223-1056, Monday through Friday, 8 to 4:30 p.m.
